REBEKAH DISTRICT MEETING.

The ninth district meeting of the Rebekahs of district No. 16 was held in Litchfield June 6. This meeting was one of the largest that Litchfield has ever entertained, there being about 120 visitors present. The lodges represented were Hazard, Mason City, Ansley, Westerville, Berwyn, Broken Bow, Merna and Anselmo.

Lodge was called to order at eleven o'clock a. m. with all the officers present. We had with us Past President of the Assembly, Mrs. Margaret Holcomb, of Broken Bow, and Past Grand Master, Mr. Frank John, of Grand Island.

At twelve o'clock a sumptuous dinner was served by the Litchfield lodge in the basement of the Disciple's church.

In the afternoon session the initiation work was beautifully put on by the Westerville team.

The secret work contest was entered into by all lodges present and the banner was awarded to Broken Bow and Westerville six months each.

The balloting was exemplified by the Berwyn lodge; this was followed by a Penny march, the amount given being $5.14 which was given to Litchfield, the entertaining lodge.

The officers for the following year were elected and installed by the Broken Bow team. This work was well put on and appreciated by all.

Now comes five o'clock when the train is due to carry away most of the visitors so we adjourn to meet in one year with the Broken Bow lodge.—One who was there.

IMPORTANT BUSINESS CHANGE.

On Tuesday J. A. Arnett & Son, dealers in hardware, furniture and implements, sold their stock to a Mr. Plant, of Waco, Neb., who will take possession of the store on June 20, when the stock will be inventoried. We have not met Mr. Plant, who will soon be one of our business men, but are informed that he is a progressive, wide-awake business man and will be welcomed in our city. The Arnetts have not yet decided what they will do in the future but will take life easy for a time before deciding fully on their plans.

CARD OF THANKS.

As we have disposed of our hardware, implement and furniture business we wish to thank all our customers for their patronage while we were engaged in business in Loup City. We have appreciated your business and would be pleased to have you continue the same with our successor, who will take charge of the store on June 20. We would be pleased to have you call and see us if needing anything in our line before we dispose of the stock. You will be treated right. Respectfully,
J. A. ARNETT & SON.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs and their families will meet at their halls next Sunday at 10 o'clock to be in readiness to repair to the M. E. church where a special sermon will be preached, after which they will go to the cemetery and decorate the graves of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs.

By Order of Committee.

Erick Nystrom's team ran away with him while raking hay bruising him up considerably.

Mr. and Mrs. Denno, of Red Cloud, sister of Henry Harris, is here visiting him for a few days.

Mrs. C. L. Baker, sister of Wm. Jones and Mrs. Wickman, came in from Ulysses for a visit with them.

Pete Engleman is assisting F. G. Purcell in Cording's drug store during Joe's absence at the convention.

Mrs. Wm. McLellan, who has been sick for the past two months with typhoid fever is convalescing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Wilson, of St. Edwards, are here for a few days' visit with their son, Sherman Wilson and wife.

Mrs. Mary Craven and family came up from Ravenna Monday morning for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Harris.

Mrs. Robert Peterson came in on No. 39 Monday evening to the surprise of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Robinson and Fred.

Our townsman Henry Harris, left for Broken Bow Friday, returning on Sunday morning. Don't tell anyone that Mrs. Harris was away.

Our jeweler, F. G. Purcell visited his home and some one else at Broken Bow over Sunday, returning on No. 40 Monday morning.

Mrs. Henry Harris went to Red Cloud Saturday morning to attend the funeral of her nephew, Roy Campbell, who was buried on Sunday.

Irvin Kenyon, who has just finished his course in Omaha high school and has been home for two weeks, returned to Omaha for the closing exercises.

Floyd Howard, who lives on Wiggle Creek had the misfortune to have his hay stacker fall on him Friday fracturing his ankle and otherwise injuring him.

Martin Poleson, who was helping Wilbur Curry stack hay was knocked off the stack by a load of hay injuring his hip. He is in bed but hopes to be around in a few days.

George McKenzie went to Grand Island on No. 40 Sunday morning to visit his wife who is in the hospital there. She is reported as doing well after such a severe operation.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Achenbach left in their car Monday morning. They are motoring to Michigan to visit Mr. Achenbach's old home and his son, Birney. A pleasant trip to you people hoping you will enjoy your vacation.

Ralph Farnsworth left for Vernon, Colo., via Ray Colo., the latter part of the week for an extended visit with Charles North, brother of Mrs. Farnsworth and incidentally to recuperate. He has been suffering from lumbago. He has worked hard and proposes taking a much needed rest.

At the annual school meeting Ed. Slote and John Duncan, the retiring members, were re-elected. The 11th grade was added to the school and nine months was voted and $4,000 for running the school for the next year. The old school building is to be sold at auction when the new one is completed.

ROCKVILLE HAPPENINGS

I. C. Smith, of Loup City, was in our burg on business Monday afternoon.

Mr. Metcalf, of Ravenna, was a Rockville visitor Wednesday of last week.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Hans Smith, a bouncing baby boy. Congratulations.

Mrs. John Hehnke returned from Grand Island Thursday of last week after a few days' visit with friends.

Quite a number of people from this place attended the park opening day at Jenner's park at Loup City last Thursday.

Alonzo Beza autoed over to Ashton Monday afternoon with James Ecke to attend the Peterson wedding dance at that place.

Miss Nora Ohlund returned from Grand Island on the motor Friday evening where she had been visiting friends and relatives.

Miss Elida Lund returned from Grand Island Thursday evening of last week, after having visited with friends at that place for a few days.

Burt Williams went over to Ashton Monday morning to work for P. K. Peterson in the barber shop, returning on the noon motor Tuesday.

If you want to see a real fast base ball game better go to Boelus on June 18, Sunday, where the fast Boelus team crosses bats with the Cairo team.

The rainfall in this vicinity for the last few days was as follows: On June 10, 14-hundredths of an inch and 66-hundredths of an inch on the 12th.

E. Dwehus went to Dannebrog on Wednesday of last week on business. Carl Linn, of Ravenna, was a Rockville visitor Wednesday of last week.

Wonder why the Rockville band practices no more? Surely we're not going to let our practice slide like that. If we do, we're not going to have any more band that what the little boy shot at, so let's get busy and do something.

Louis Hansen, who is in the hospital at Grand Island, being treated for stomach trouble, does not seem to be improving very rapidly, from latest reports. Sometimes he seems to be getting along nicely and then he seems to get a setback which is very hard on him.

The annual school meeting for school district No. 8 was held in the Rockville school house Monday evening. The attendance was very small on account of the bad weather which prevailed. After the books were audited by the auditing committee, a vote was taken for the election of a treasurer. After the final vote was taken N. Jensen was re-elected to that office.

The results in the Sherman-Howard league last Sunday were as follows: Boelus took a double bill from the Ashton team on the Boelus grounds, the scores being 6 to 0 first game and 5 to 0 second game. This makes eight straight victories for Boelus having won four double-headers, putting them way in the lead with a 1,000 percentage. Dannebrog defeated the Farwell team on the Dannebrog grounds, we did not find out what the score was.

Walt Finder, O. Wilson, S. C. Wallace, F. C. Sundstrom and Leon R. Beza autoed over to Ashton Monday to attend the P. K. Peterson wedding dance at that place. The rainfall at that place was so great Monday night that most of the boys returned via the train route the next day, with the exception of Sam, who had to hire a team and drive over those slippery hills in the early morning hours so as to be on duty next morning. Hard luck we claim.

WHY TAKE A CHANCE.

When riding on a country road. Near a crossing at a grade. You hear a distant whistle blow And know why the sound is made. All who hear the warning given, Must expect to find An engine coming down the line. And a train of cars behind. Can't the engineer stop it? Why, yes, after a while. But it takes a little distance. Say about half a mile. Don't give your car more gasoline Or whip up your "old boss." And take a chance of getting hit— To beat the train across. For if it ever hits you. Well—I've only this to say, There'll be joy in heaven Or there'll be the devil to pay. —Communicated.

SCRAWNY CALVES.

What makes a calf scrawny—of its feed? Germs—parasites—in the intestines. Why not free them of this trouble? If you will give the calf some B. A. Thomas Stock Remedy in its feed, within a week you will see it brighten up and in four or five weeks you will know the calf. Costs you but a few cents and we will refund that if it doesn't do as we say.—J. J. Slominski.

TWO SURE WINNERS

Charles Evans Hughes, former governor of New York, and until recently justice of the supreme court of the United States, was nominated for the presidency by the republican national convention at Chicago.

Charles Warren Fairbanks of Indiana, elected vice president with Theodore Roosevelt in 1904, again was chosen for second place on the republican ticket.

Both nominations, made by overwhelming majorities on the first ballot of the day—the third ballot of the convention—were by acclamation made unanimous.

Almost at the same moment Theodore Roosevelt was nominated by the national progressive convention and later in the day John M. Parker, of Louisiana, was named as his running mate.

The republican nomination required a ballot, the third of the convention, while the progressive nomination was made by acclamation.

Mr. Roosevelt's provisional declaration to accept the progressive nomination is believed by the political wise, to leave the door ajar, if not wide open, for eventual withdrawal of the third ticket, in the event Mr. Hughes' position on what the progressives feel to be the vital issues of the campaign, meets their approval. To this extent at least, the leaders in both parties feel that the efforts at harmony, even if not directly fruitful of results, may be realized.

The republican convention at Chicago this year was notable in political history for many things. A man who steadfastly had refused to seek the nomination had been chosen; it left a new milestone in the paths of both the republican and progressive parties; it was the first republican convention since 1888 which had been forced to take more than one ballot to agree upon a candidate, and it has been marked by a lack of riotous demonstration and nervous enthusiasm which hitherto has been a feature of such gatherings.

It did not touch any of the existing records for sustained demonstrations but despite the fact that in political vernacular it was wholly and decidedly "unbossed" it moved with a precision and quietness which has not been equaled since the McKinley convention in Philadelphia.

THE BOELUS DAM.

This hydro-electric plant will be one of the largest in Nebraska, and is to develop 3600 electrical horse power, through two 1800 horse power generators actuated by two immense turbine wheels under a 30-foot head of water. A power line to Grand Island, by the way of Cairo is already built, and other lines are to be built to St. Paul, Central City, Wood River, and perhaps other towns within a radius of twenty-five miles of the plant.

The river is to be tapped three miles above the power house, and at this point the water will be diverted into a canal (which is already completed), by a big diversion dam, work on which is only just nicely started. At the lower end of the canal the discharge will be thirty feet above the normal level of the stream. The power house is located at this point, and in it are installed two immense generators, each having a capacity of 1800 horse power. The power house is very substantially built of iron and reinforced concrete, and in it the machinery is already placed.

Just above the headgate, at the upper end of the canal, is being built a reinforced concrete dam. Its exact length was not learned, but it will be a thousand feet or more in length. It will be a succession of concrete arches each arch covering a gate which may be raised or lowered as may be required to control the stream. The concrete work on this dam is now in progress, not over one hundred feet of its length being so far completed.

The headgate, dam and power house is of very heavy reinforced concrete construction resting upon steel piling. The builders have erected this expensive work in a bed of almost pure white sand, which has added vastly to the difficulty of the undertaking, but it is believed that every danger has been well guarded against, and no very serious difficulty is expected to develop after the work is completed.

The site of the dam and power house is a great attraction for automobile tourists, and every Sunday hundreds of sight seers visit the place. After the work is completed a large reservoir or lake will form above the dam, and it is not improbable that it may become quite a resort, being within easy reach by automobile of St. Paul, Ravenna, Grand Island, Cairo, and a number of other places.—Ravenna News.

Some fellows are always looking around to see whether the other fellows are working or not. And that is why the boss is always watching them.

Edwin Ohlsen returned Tuesday evening from hadron where he has been working.

Straw hats and perspiration will soon be ambling along.
