Politeness, like paint, is often spread on for effect. Peace talk keeps right on bobbing up over in Europe, and as religiously bobs right down again.

No one is necessarily good because he is making good. "Americanism" is a good sign, but "Americanism and Communityism" is the best one of all.

The trees in and around the court house square were all nicely trimmed this week which greatly improves the appearance of the trees and square. Patriotism in Omaha, as all through Nebraska, is in evidence at present. The latest expression in the metropolis is the announcement by many of the public utilities corporations that their employees who go into service will not lose financially, and that they will make up the difference between what the government pays and the salary of the employee and that his job will be found waiting for him when he returns,—with the hope that all will return. Without exception Omaha concerns have announced that all who desire to enlist may without losing their positions and that the places will be held open. One ambitious lad passed up a $300 per month job to enlist.
