YARROW HELD NEW YORK MOB.

Dr. George Gibbons Yarrow, who lectures here during our Chautauqua, had an annual experience in New York not long ago.

He was advertised to lecture in Hope House, on lower East Side, New York. He got more response than any of them expected.

When the doors were opened, 300 little street urchins rushed in and occupied the front seats. The crowd of grown-ups blocked the street in front of the building.

The man in charge asked Yarrow if he thought he could manage such a howling mob. To which he replied: "Just leave it to me! I have six brothers, and am somewhat of a prize fighter myself."

He did hold them alright, though he had to referee four fights during his short stay in the hall. At the close the youngsters climbed up on the stage and literally swarmed around him to take his hand.

The audience was surprised; some of the men were alarmed lest the urchins would mob Mr. Yarrow. Three of the men rushed up to the platform and pulled the lads down, believing that they meant harm to him.

The man in charge, Rev. John Ellsworth Fleming said: "You will probably never have an audience harder to control than that mob of howling, restless young 'East Siders.'"

BIG PLAY MONDAY NIGHT.

The management of the Loup City opera house has secured an attraction of unusual merit to play here on Monday night, July 31. "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" is the play and is said to be very much like the popular book of the same name. The company is composed of recognized artists headed by Dainty Marie Muller who will be seen in the part of Barefoot June, Mr. Charles Bailey, late of the Eva Lang Company, will have a prominent part in the play. All special scenery will be used as well as beautiful light effects, etc. This company will no doubt play to a packed house as the book has been read by many people here who are already awaiting an opportunity to see the play. Popular prices are announced. The manager of the opera house informs us that the curtain will not ring up until 8:45 in order to give the many farmers who want to see the play plenty of time to get here.

WEEKLY BAND CONCERTS.

The band gave the first of a series of summer concerts in the band stand in the court house yard Monday evening and the same was much enjoyed by the crowd on the streets. These concerts will now be a regular Monday evening feature and in addition Director Prichard announces that the regular Friday evening practice will be held in the band stand. In another column will be found the program for next Friday evening. Some arrangements should be made for seating those in attendance and several of the carpenters of the city have volunteered to donate their time to build the seats if the business men of the city will buy the lumber. We believe that there will be no trouble to obtain material for the seats.

THE LONGEST DAY OF THE YEAR

THE REO A CLASSY CAR.

Anyone who has had an opportunity to ride with A. C. Ogle in the new Reo Six that he brought to town some time ago has been treated to a demonstration of speed and power that is not to be equalled by any car of the price that the Reo sells at. As concerns speed, it has enough to satisfy even the wildest of the speed maniacs, making sixty or more miles per hour without any apparent effort.

When it comes to power the car seems to be overstocked, as there seems to be no place the car cannot travel. Tuesday evening the writer took a ride with Mr. Ogle and was treated to an exhibition of the Six climbing a sand hill on the Arcadia road near the Garner farm. Not satisfied with making the ascent once Mr. Ogle sent the car over the hill three successive times, and came down the steepest point in the hill, which shows the brake control of the car.

Mr. Ogle has sold nine of these cars this season and informs us that there has not been a kick of any kind registered from any purchaser. That he himself has unlimited confidence in the Reo is shown by the fact that he has ordered twenty-five of the cars for next season and expects to sell more than that number if it is possible to obtain them. Anyone contemplating buying a car should at least get a Reo demonstration before making a purchase.

BARNES-SMITH WEDDING.

With the best wishes of this paper and a host of friends, we are pleased to announce the marriage of Ada Gale Smith, daughter of County Judge, E. A. Smith, of Arthur L. Barnes, of Chapell, Deuel county, Neb., the ceremony being performed this forenoon by the Rev. L. V. Slocumb of the Methodist Episcopal church at the parsonage in the presence of relatives of the bride and groom.

Mrs. Barnes was born and raised in Sherman county, and it is with regret that her many friends find that she is going to leave Loup City. For the past few years she has been one of the instructors in the Loup City schools.

Mr. Barnes, as many of his friends will remember, was at one time a resident of Loup City, but last spring decided to become a wheat raiser on a farm near Chappell, where they will make their future home, leaving for that place on the noon motor. That they may prosper and have a long and happy life is the wishes of their many Loup City friends.

THE CHURCHES.

Methodist.
Last Quarterly Conference of the year will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.
Dr. G. W. Isham will preach at 10:30 a. m. Sunday.
Rev. C. E. Campbell, of Arcadia, will preach at the open air meeting at the Baptist church at 8:00 o'clock p. m.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES.

Gus Lorentz was taken sick last Monday and was confined to his home for a couple of days, but is now at the store again.

A merry party from the Frederick hotel autted to Arcadia Tuesday evening in A. C. Ogle's big Reo, had refreshments and an enjoyable trip.

Mrs. Katie Mostek and children, who have been here visiting with her brothers, George and Stanley Mostek, returned to her home at Duncan, Neb., on Wednesday morning.

E. T. Beushansen, late of E. Smalley, accompanied by their wives and Mr. Smalley's father, attended the auto races at Grand Island last Sunday, returning in the evening.

Miss Alice Maron, of Fremont, Neb., and Miss Mary Ogan, of Hot Springs, S. D., who have been here visiting at the S. H. Richmond home, left Monday morning for their homes.

Manager Young has issued invitations for a dance to be given in the opera house on next Friday evening. In the future a dance will probably be given there every two weeks.

Loup City was quite well represented at Ravenna, Wednesday, to see the ball game between Ravenna and Scotia. We were unable to ascertain the names of those who attended.

Mike Chlewski, who has been seriously ill at his home north of Loup City last evening and taken to the Drs. Bowman hospital, it being deemed best to have him where he would have more quiet and constant attendance.

Mrs. L. M. Williams, who suffered a fracture of the skull by being thrown from a buggy last week, is reported to be improving quite rapidly and is now able to sit up. Her many friends will be pleased to learn that she is out of danger, as her recovery from an accident of this kind is almost miraculous.

Misses Marie Cooper and Myrtle Phillips motored to Kearney last Friday and returned Saturday. The young ladies took turns at driving and made the return trip in two one-half hours, which time speaks somewhat eloquently for the driving abilities of the ladies.

The nine-months-old son of Mike Palu was thrown from a hay rake on Monday, alighting on his head and shoulders in such a manner as to produce temporary paralysis of the lower part of his body and limbs. He was brought to Loup City in an unconscious condition and taken to the Drs. Bowman hospital. He later recovered sufficiently to be taken home and is now reported to be getting along very well.

RAVENNA TRIMS LOUP CITY.

The Ravenna ball team came over last Sunday and walloped the home team to the tune of 5 to 0. The game was devoid of any particular features, outside of the work of the boys, who both put up good exhibitions, although both had a couple of wabably spells. However, they both made a quick recovery. East, the Ravenna hurler striking out 11 men, and Gilbert, for Loup City, fanning 7.

Cash Prichard caught for the home team and put up a good game, pegging out several runners who otherwise stood a good chance of scoring. The Loup City team shows the need of batting practice and team work but these things will come in time and we will not make a business of getting the short end of the score.

Following is the score by innings:
Loup City—0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0
Ravenna—0 1 3 0 0 0 1—5

LOUP CITY GOLFERS WIN.

On Wednesday the 19th instant, six members of the Loup City Golf club entered over to Ord to play against a like number of players representing Ord Golf club, the game resulting in a win for Loup City. Particulars of the game are as follows: Lou Schwaner beat Orin Mutter, up, Rev. L. V. Slocumb beat Bud Shirley, 6 up, J. W. Long tied with the Rev. Chamberlain, A. J. Johnson beat Ed. Clements 7 up, M. H. Worlock beat John Trosky 8 up, O. L. Swanson lost to Ed. Beranek. The Ord Golf club have greatly improved their course, having lengthened it considerably and it is now, without question, a very pleasant course indeed.

The Loup City Golf players were shown great hospitality at the hands of the members of the Ord Golf club, who entertained them to a fine dinner at the hotel, and left nothing undone to make their visit a pleasant one.

NEW FIRM GETS CARS.

Grassmuck & Maus, the new auto firm this week unloaded a car of Buicks and have a Four and a Six on display at their sales room, north of the First National bank. This firm has all the appearance of being hustlers and there is no doubt they will make good in this territory. They are most cordially invited to call.

WASHINGTON LETTER

Northwestern Bureau, Washington, D. C., July 26.—Jules Verne's "Nautilus" was no better than a tug boat in comparison to the Deutschland, which has brought a million-dollar cargo from Germany to the United States. The Germans gave ample notice to the world that they were going to do this, and the captain of the great new U-boat carried out his promise that he would not run the blockade of the British fleet, but would go under it. The achievement is one of the most remarkable in the history of navigation. Robert Fulton's Clarendon was no more of an object of curiosity at its time, than is the new Deutschland, which avoids bad weather and enemies by simply going down to the desired depth, where it remains safely for a day or a night, or any other period. The Deutschland submerges 150 feet with comparative ease, and it dips out of sight in a minute and a half. In that way it has an armor protection a great deal more than that made by the Bethlehem Steel, or any other of the interests that have waxed fat by selling their goods to Uncle Sam. There may be air-holes in the armor plate sold to the government, there is always that chance. But 150 feet of salt water takes all the terrors out of dreadnaughts and torpedo boat destroyers, and other kinds of watercraft. Washington is liberal and neutral enough to take off its hat in commemoration of this great accomplishment b the Deutschland.

Ripon's Extraordinary Request.

The established supposition that the public treasury exists for the benefit of individuals and the community that can pull something out of it, may have to be revised in view of the recent action of the city of Ripon, Wisconsin, which has made a request through a resolution of the city council and commercial club and by a petition of many of its citizens, asking that $75,000 appropriated for its public building, be diverted to the use of the military aviation corps, or other purposes of preparedness. Mayor L. W. Thayer and Postmaster C. H. Ellsworth, of Ripon, who were asked for a statement by the U. S. Press Association, have declared that the entire course of the city of Ripon is based upon patriotic reasons. So far as known this is the first instance on record where anybody has refused to benefit from drawing on the federal treasury. Ripon claims that by right it should have its public building, but it prefers that the amount it will cost shall be, in substance, used as a contribution towards preparedness. A number of publications have contained editorials to the effect that this is one case where "Pork barrel legislation" has been discredited by the citizens, intended to receive its benefit. Ripon is a fine city and entitled to a public building, and the fact that the action of its citizens may delay the erection of the same does not in any way disprove the contention that public improvements should be made throughout the country for the uses of the government, and for the benefit of the people of the favored localities.

The Farmer's Lot.

Congress has looked with favor upon the measure to extend better facilities of credit to the farmers throughout the country, while the good roads bill, made in the name of the farmer but secured at the instigation of the automobile users, will help to make the idea of the farm more attractive. In the hope that the percentage of farmers owning their land may be increased, the federal government is providing the necessary machinery to make loans easier. This measure may produce wonderful results, if it accomplishes its purpose in making it possible for men of small means to divorce themselves from the factory and the "regular pay roll." Uncle Sam's broad acres are hungry for men and women who will produce, rather than consume the natural products of life.

Peary Changed His Mind.

Rear Admiral Robert E. Peary recently became a candidate for the United States Senate from his home state of Maine. When he entered the fight it was with the announcement that his sole idea was that if elected he might aid in the cause of preparedness, which he considers the only issue before the country today. He expressed particular anxiety for the building of an aeroplane coast patrol and naval base in Maine. The Peary candidacy lasted a whole week.

INTERESTED IN SWINE SHOW.

Omaha, Neb., July 26—From all parts of the United States inquiries are coming in regard to the National Swine Show, which will be held in Omaha during the first week of October. The show, the first of its kind ever attempted, is stimulating great interest in the middle west, which provides the very fundamentals of swine development—alfalfa and corn.

That the show will be successful goes without saying. Entries are pouring in now which assure a most representative show with the best individuals being exhibited. California has already sent entries as has Louisiana.

Omaha's location, its railroad facilities, the wonderful territory surrounding the metropolis and the money prizes offered are the magnets that are drawing the fire. The show will be a big thing for Nebraska and Iowa.
