

THREE CARS OF FORDS

The Car You Need
To Arrive Within Ten Days

SPEAK FOR YOURS NOW

Ford Efficiency, Economy and Dependability Unequalled and the Price for the New 1917 Models

$345 Ford Roadster
$360 Ford 5-Pass. Touring Car

F. O. B. DETROIT, MICHIGAN

Distributor
Loup City, Neb.

A. C. OGILE

Distributor
Loup City, Neb.

DEER CREEK NUGGETS.

Paul Kryski lost one of his old black horses last week.

F. J. Maciejewski hauled corn to Ashton the past week.

Martin Jasnoch is at the present working for Anton Peters.

Andrew Bonczynski shelled corn at Rockville one day last week.

Robert Maiefski helped his brother, Joe, near Ashton to put up alfalfa.

Frank Bydalek shipped a car load of stock to Omaha last Wednesday.

August Maschka sold several head of stock to Pete Glinesman Monday.

Leon Harenza was water jack for the plow pushers Monday and Tuesday.

Frank Bonczynski lost a valuable young colt last Thursday by the lightning.

Martin Bydalek sold some corn to Anton Kwiatkowski, of Ashton, last week.

School district No. 12 opens in two weeks. Miss Lizzie Weiss will teach again.

Garret Lorenz, of Ashton, made a business trip to the Seabold Brothers Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Polski were the guests of their relatives in Ashton on Sunday.

The Hansen family were about the last ones on the Creek that had the measles.

St. Dymak and I. S. Kalkowski helped John Detleff harvest alfalfa last week.

Tophiel Bonczynski is repairing the L. F. Lubash motorcycle during his spare time.

Mrs. Josephine Lubash visited with her daughter, Mrs. John Woltezewski last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Maciejewski were guests of their son, Harry Maciejewski, Sunday.

Deer Creek was visited by a good rain last week which helped the farmers and the crops.

The Plambeck family autoed to Boelus last Sunday to see the electric construction there.

Messrs Loyd and Harry Bydalek, of near Farwell, visited with their uncle, Martin Bydalek, Sunday.

Miss Minnie Maiefski has been staying at the home of John Papernick helping during thrashing.

Miss Martha Badura, of Pardin, is again staying with her sister, Mrs. E. A. Peters, for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Hampson, of Omaha, are visiting with the latter's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stobbe.

F. J. Maciejewski returned from Loup City last Saturday where he had been working on a new house.

John, Ed. and Claus Plambeck and Alfonso Maschka, autoed to Loup City last Tuesday on business.

Pete Glinesman is busy buying stock from farmers. He is the man who knows how to make a living.

F. J. Maciejewski took the train for Loup City Monday to finish with the house, returning Thursday.

A few of the farmers began to harvest hay last week. We expect they will all be in full swing this week.

Miss Emma Peters returned from Schaupps last week where she had visited with her brother, John Peters.

Monday the plow pushers had another misfortune in breaking the steering wheel in pulling up a steep hill.

Mrs. Paul Kryski and daughters, returned from Genoa this week where they visited with relatives and friends a few days.

Andrew Bonczynski sold his gasoline engine last Tuesday. He expects to purchase a seven horse power in the future.

The plow pushers had a misfortune last week of getting one of their cog wheels broken when pulling up a steep hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Maiefski, of Ashton, came over to the Creek to look over their farm which is occupied by Elmer Koch.

Leon F. Lubash sold his (kernos) the motorcycle, to Anton Gernata, of Ashton, Sunday and says he is glad to get rid of it.

Walter Steczynski arrived here from Omaha last Saturday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Maiefski for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Maciejewski, Mr. and Mrs. John Lubash, of north of Ashton, were guests of F. A. Maciejewski last Sunday.

Mrs. St. Nowicki returned home on last Saturday from where she had been visiting with relatives and friends for a few days.

Louie Brammer is busy plowing on the farm occupied by B. H. Lorenz, which Mr. Brammer purchased from Mrs. W. C. Detrick, of Loup City.

Anton Kaminski, agent for the Elkhorn Insurance company, was on the Creek looking over the damaged house of John Bonczynski's which was struck by lightning.

We understand that B. H. Lorenz will move to Deuel county next spring where he has rented a farm consisting of 320 acres. We wish him success in his new home.

A barn dance was given at the home of St. Wroblewski Sunday. A fair crowd was present. The Maschka-Stobbe Brothers furnished the music and all reported a fine time.

We understood that Joe Lubash was about to trade his Ford to Dr. Dickinson, of Rockville, for a Dodge car, but couldn't make the agreement so both are keeping their own cars yet.

A few relatives and friends entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. St. Nowicki last Sunday. Light refreshments were served and later all departed for their homes reporting a good time.

Last week Wednesday when the great lightning storm met this place a bolt struck the house of John Bonczynski tearing the roof nearly off. Luckily no one was hurt or other damage done.

We wish to correct an item which was published two weeks ago, about Frank Bonczynski plowing his corn late and was objected by him. The correspondent or the editor did not know that it was dissatisfactory to him. The item was handed to the correspondent by one of his neighbors and we shall correct it. Items will not be published that will dissatisfy anyone.

The Deer Creek base ball nine went to Ashton Sunday to cross bats with Ashton's second team. They got soaked by the score of 8 to 5. Maschka tossed to pill for our boys striking out nine of the Ashton batsmen. Ojendyk was on the mound for Ashton striking out four Deer Creek sluggers. The game was mostly lost on poor head work. Arrangements for a return game are not yet made.

The Deer Creek second team went to Ashton Sunday to play ball with the Ashton third team. They defeated them by a score of 18 to 15. Rag chewing was the main stay of the game. The Ashton score keeper was busy marking some extra scores to make a lead over our boys and tried to claim the victory but it was our game by rights. Batteries for Deer Creek, Gappa, Bydalek and Peters. For Ashton, Jankowski and Doid. Umpire, Sedczyk. A return game will be played in the future.

DAVIS CREEK NEWS.

Bulah and Thelma Brown visited with Jess Trump Sunday.

The children of Tony Zaruba and Ed. Stillman have the measles.

John Pelanowski and Albert Sowokinos were in Ashton Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris and children visited at the Trump home Sunday. Clarence Stillman helped Frank Manchester stack hay one day last week.

John Garvel was in North Loup one day last week to purchase a new stacker.

Miss Florence Trump was helping the Roman girls with the house work last week.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Claud Roman on August 11, a charming little daughter.

A very fine rain fell in this locality last Wednesday and sure makes every one feel happy.

Frank and George Pelanowski, of Ord, were visiting with their brother and family Sunday.

Mr. Cofell, of Davis Creek, autoed with Frank Manchester last Thursday on business matters.

Frank Manchester and Conrad Jakubowski called at the Joe Sowokinos home last Tuesday evening.

Miss Julia Orent and Miss Rosa Gather visited with the former's aunt and uncle last Wednesday.

Clair Kettle, of Ashton, was out to Frank Manchester's Saturday and helped him finish his stacking.

Lester Hassel visited with the Trump boys last Wednesday while his parents were in Loup City.

Mr. and Mrs. Czaplewski, of Loup City, spent Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Pelanowski.

The old school house was sold to the highest bidder Saturday. John Chipp, of Scotia, being the highest bidder.

The ball game which was to go off at the Brown ball diamond was dismissed as the south parties did not show up.

It has been reported here that the scarlet fever is in Ashton. Gee we are wondering what next will start through the country.

Clair Kettle and Conrad Jakubowski are out here cutting and baling their wild hay. Frank Manchester and son are also helping.

There was a fine barn dance given at the Lorence Spotanski home Sunday night.

A large crowd was present and everybody had a good time.

Floyd Bowers, who has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. Trump, left for his home in Upland, Frank Trump accompanied him as far as Ashton.

Herold White is taking subscriptions for the Omaha News for the new Hudson automobile. The contest will open September 4. We all wish Herold good luck.

George Orent and Miss Rosa Gather were to leave for Cedar Rapids, Ia., Tuesday after visiting the past two months with the former's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Orent.

Frank Manchester and Conrad Jakubowski drove to Ashton Wednesday afternoon and was caught in the heavy rain. They remained over night the home of John Pelanowski.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sowokinos and daughters, Mrs. Tony Orent, and family and Mrs. Tony Zaruba, and family, and Miss Rosa Gather, Sunday with Mrs. John Pelanowski. They also took in the dance at the Lorence Spotanski home.

A good hay rack and well filled with hay and nearly all one side of the barn belonging to Frank Manchester, were consumed by fire. Mrs. Manchester and two oldest children did all they could by carrying water and succeeded in getting a team and harness out of the barn.

PUBLIC AUCTION

I will sell at public auction to the highest and best bidder at the Band Stand in Ashton, on

Saturday, August 26th, 1916
at 2 O'clock P. M.

The Northeast Quarter of Section Twenty (20), Township Fifteen (15), Range Thirteen (13), known as the Wrehe farm, which is three miles west of Ashton and eight miles east of Loup City, in Sherman County, Nebraska.

This farm is located in one of the best farming communities in the county with good school and railroad facilities.

Terms of Sale:

One-fifth cash and the balance on or before March 1, 1917, when the purchase and sale will be closed.

Abstract showing good title furnished.

HENRY WREHE

BRING YOUR GRAIN

TO THE

Loup City Mill & Light Co.

Furnishes all the light and power and also makes the best of flour. Handled by all Merchants.

BUY FLOUR THAT IS MADE IN LOUP CITY

HEADQUARTERS FOR ALL KINDS OF

Hard and Soft Coal

TAYLOR'S ELEVATOR

LOUP CITY, NEBRASKA