Quite a number of Masons from Ravenna were in attendance at the meeting held here Tuesday evening. Mr. Hunt of the Ravenna lodge conducting work in the third degree, which was conferred on O. F. Peterson. After the session refreshments were served.

W. T. Owens is still confined to his home with a severe attack of kidney trouble. Mr. Owens' advanced age makes the trouble more acute as it is almost impossible to find a treatment that will give much relief. His many friends are calling on him daily and doing their best to keep him cheered up.

The ladies of the Altar society of the Catholic church served a sumptuous chicken dinner in the Gze-hoviak building today. A large crowd partook of the same and if there were any who did not get all the chicken they wanted it was because they were mighty late. The ladies netted a neat sum for the society.

Keith Neville, democratic candidate for governor, and Ed. McDermott, senatorial congressional candidate, made a tour of Sherman County the past few days and spoke at all the towns in the county. They were in Loup City Tuesday afternoon and Mr. Neville addressed quite a crowd of democratic admirers. A number of local democrats chaperoned the party through the county.

More than twenty years ago Ruddy and Kipling journeyed through the United States and wrote some letters to the paper in India with which he was then connected. In one of these letters he commented upon our military unpreparedness and said that some morning there would be seven million mad men in the United States for they would find war on hand and there would be no guns.

M. C. Mulick attended the fair and races at Grand Island last week and held down a job as one of the judges of the races. Some of Mike's political enemies were also in attendance and accuse him of having bet on some of the track element, one of the running races failing to materialize on account of the horses not being able to break away to the satisfaction of the judges. Mike declares his innocence, stating that when he takes chances on any game he prefers something easy like the shell game.

"The Avenging Conscience," shown at the opera house on Tuesday evening is said to have been one of the strongest offerings that Manager A. B. Young has shown this season. Mr. Young is giving the Loup City public the best that can be obtained in filmdom and deserves a more liberal patronage than he has been receiving. The next big show will be "The Battle Cry of Peace," which comes to the local theater next Tuesday evening. Seats are now on sale for this grand production and the public may expect to see a show that is far above the average.

At the M. E. conference held in Omaha, Rev. L. V. Solcumb was transferred to the McCabe M. E. church of Omaha. This is one of the largest churches of Omaha and the people of that congregation are to be congratulated on the appointment of Rev. Solcumb to the pastorate. The people of Loup City are indeed sorry to see Mr. Solcumb and his estimable family leave this town. Rev. V. R. Beebe, of Chester, is the new pastor of the church here, and will occupy the pulpit here next Sunday. Rev. Solcumb will enter upon his pastorate at Omaha next Sunday, the family leaving Monday.

GRANNELL-AUFRECHT.

A pretty wedding took place in the Methodist Episcopal church at Big Springs, Sunday morning, September 10, when Miss Margaret Grannell, one of the splendid young ladies of that place was united in marriage to Mr. Wm. Aufrecht, of Arcadia, Nebraska.

At exactly eleven o'clock, while a beautiful wedding march was played, the wedding party marched down the aisle and took their position. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, L. R. McGaughey. Little Miss Alberta taking the part of the ring bearer.

The church was decorated with the most magnificent ferns and pink and blue asters.

The bride was attired in a dainty gown of white shadow lace, and carried a bouquet of white asters. The groom wore a becoming grey.

The ceremony was witnessed by a very large congregation which almost without exception, remained for the preaching service which followed.

At the close of the service the happy couple were greeted with many congratulations.
