Which Looks Most Attractive to You?

To "spend as you go?" Indulge yourself and your family in every idle whim right up to the limit of your income now while you are in the prime of life and at the maximum of your earning powers? And then when the grim ogre Old Age comes creeping on, do without the luxuries and trust to luck or to the generosity of your relatives for the necessities?

OR—Will you choose to live sensibly, savingly, yet satisfactorily through your earning years, that you may not have to beat a retreat in later life when you most need and appreciate material comforts?

Upon your decision rests your future happiness.
