CUNNINGHAM-ANDERSON.

Mr. Albert H. Cunningham and Miss Carrie J. Anderson were united in the bonds of holy wedlock Wednesday, March 7, 1917 at 2 o'clock, Rev. Vincent R. Beebe of the Methodist church officiating. The ceremony was performed at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil E. Cunningham, in Loup City. Only immediate relatives witnessed the marriage service. Immediately after the ceremony a fine wedding dinner was enjoyed.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Anderson of Hazard, Nebraska. She has grown to young womanhood in that vicinity where she is well and very favorable known as a young lady of most excellent and womanly qualities. The groom is a steady young man of thrift and industry who has been working as head man for Fuller & Fuller near Hazard, for the past five years. The bride was gowned in a beautiful wedding dress of white messaline, trimmed in white embroidered lace. The groom wore the conventional black. Miss Lettie Cunningham, sister of the bride, served as bridesmaid. She was attired in a lovely gown of fresh colored georgette crepe. Mr. Andrew Anderson, brother of the bride, was best man. The flowers worn were pink and white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham come from most worthy families and are deserving of continued success. They will go to farming about ten miles south of Loup City. May happiness and prosperity attend them is the wish of their many friends.

To the taxpayers of Sherman county. If the 1916 taxes are not paid by the 20th of this month I will have to issue distress warrants for the same. So please come and pay them and save costs.

D. C. GROW, Co. Treas.

Statistics show there is in circulation at the present time in the United States $4,024,695,762, about half of which is in gold. This is enough to give every man, woman and child $39.28. We wish the party who has our share would bring it in.

Japan intimated that she would "swallow us whole" if congress passed that immigration bill. The bill becomes a law, and now its up to the Oriental swallower. We're here.
