The Sherman county board of supervisors met yesterday and this meeting was attended by citizens from all parts of the county the south and west sides being strongly represented. The board faced a big pile of business and quickly got to work and cleaned it up.

The county levy for the coming year was made 15 mills, which includes 5 mills for the court house fund. The state levy this year is 8.48 mills, 2.38 mills higher than last year's levy.

Two federal aid roads were established, one running through Sweetwater, Hazard and Litchfield, which connects with federal aid roads in adjoining counties. The other federal aid road commences at the Valley county line, running through Loup City and Rockville, across the river at Rockville to Soddtown in Buffalo county. The federal government and the state each pays one half for the building of these roads, the only expense the county being put to is the maintenance of these roads after being made.

The federal aid roads proposition will be a fine thing for Sherman county, as many of our roads now are hardly fit to be called such.

Letter From Frank Janulewicz
Syracuse, N. Y., Aug. 4, 1917.

My Dear Sister Lenora:

I received your letter this week and will answer it now because I haven't much time nowaday. I sleep in the day time and at night I go to town and stay up all night. I am a military policeman and have to watch some of the soldier boys and see that they don't get into mischief of any kind. If any of them cut up too much I have to take them to the police station. I like this job very well. I have been on the job for two weeks now and I surely look like a policeman. We haven't had any rain for a long while and it is very hot here. Lots of the boys are playing out from the heat of the sun. When they go on a hike sometimes there is two or three down before they get home, that is the infantry boys. One of our boys was killed the other day by his horse kicking him in the side. He was a nice boy, well liked by all. I have had some more pictures taken and will send some of them home, because I think that I will quit having my picture taken. Think that you must have about a dozen now. Have you had any rain? I would like to see you have a good rain so you would raise a good crop of corn so our boys would have plenty to eat. We will need lots of grub to make good men out of us. Say, do you know anything about Johnnie, whether he is in Arizona or not? If you know please let me know, so I can write to him and

CHAUTAUQUA STARTS SUNDAY

The Loup City Chautauqua will commence Sunday, August 19 and continue for five days. The chautauqua platform has ever been one of our most patriotic forces.

Since the memorable April 2, 1917, when the United States entered the great war to fight for Freedom, and world-wide democracy, there have been no pacifists on the Redpath-Horner Chautauqua platforms. The maximum of service that can be rendered, the height of the finest loyalty, the expression of American ideals, the highest type of patriotic service which may be reached, form the chief purpose of the 1917 Redpath-Horner Chautauqua.

Yet, besides the striking messages of great orators this season, a large share of the programs are bringing happiness, entertainment and inspiration. The Chautauqua is for the entire community. While, as in all great public movements, there are some who take a leading part and through whose efforts the bigger and better things are made possible for the community, the success of the Chautauqua depends on the patronage of the masses and the quality of the programs offered. Suffice it to say, in reference to the latter, that in all the eleven years Charles F. Horner has been arranging Chautauqua programs, he never more enthusiastically and heartily recommended any program to the cities on this great circuit than he does the one for 1917.

The chautauqua comes at a very good time this year to enable most of the farmers throughout the county to attend, and a record breaking attendance is expected.

Following is the program, one of the best that has ever been brought to Loup City:

FIRST DAY, AUGUST 19
Afternoon
Concert, the St. Claire Sisters, instrumental and vocal solos, duets, trios and quartets.
Admission 25c.
Evening
Prelude, the St. Claire Sisters. Illustrated lecture, "America, God's Country," by Dr. Charles A. Payne.
Admission 35c.

SECOND DAY, AUGUST 20
Afternoon
Recital, Lawrence L. Lewis, baritone soloist, and Miss Marie Scammel, pianist and soloist. Short stories by Miss Guila Adams, reader and entertainer.
Admission 25c.
Evening
Short concert, Lawrence Lewis and Miss Scammel. Lecture, the Honorable Henderson Martin, former Vice Governor of the Philippines.
Admission 50c.

THIRD DAY, AUGUST 21
Afternoon
Dramatic reading, V. S. Watkins, giving "Bought and Paid For" or "The Terrible Meek."
Admission 25c.
Evening
"The Melting Pot," the great American drama, presented by the New York cast.
Admission 75c.

FOURTH DAY, AUGUST 22
Afternoon
Concert, The National Quartet, featuring Charley Cox and George Tack.
Admission 25c.
Evening
Prelude, The National Quartet. Program by Alton Pacard, cartoonist and entertainer.
Admission 50c.

FIFTH DAY, AUGUST 23
Afternoon
Prelude, The Mauna-Kea Hawaiians. Lecture, "Shifting Gears," Robert Lyle Finch.
Admission 35c.
Evening
Grand concert, The Mauna-Kea Hawaiians.
Admission 35c.

The Children's Work will be under the direction of Miss Ulva Nelson. A competent Superintendent and crew will be in charge during the entire week.

The afternoon program begins at 2:45 and the evening program at 7:30.

find out whether they are going to France or not. I have heard that the sixth field artillery have left for France but we have gotten so that we don't believe everything that is said.

You ought to see the bunch of soldiers that are here now. There are 17,000 of us here. You can take the car and come over and see us if it isn't too far. This will be all this time and will try to do better next time, so good-bye.

"JOY DAY" AT CHAUTAUQUA.

The "Joy Day" at chautauqua is in charge of some exceptionally clever entertainers. When the National Quartet was organized, four of the best singers and entertainers in the country were secured, the members being Charly Cox, George Tack, H. W. Stanton and Stanley Graham.

From the minute the men appear on the platform with their vigorous, rollicking ensemble number, until the last grand climax is reached the audience is held spellbound, is brought to the highest state of patriotic demonstration, or is convulsed in laughter with the humorous selections, the patriotic melodies, the songs which bring back cherished memories—the solos, the duets, the readings, the humorous "stunts"—and the versatility of these great entertainers. Fine voices are possessed by all the young men and there is plenty of humor—real, true, laugh-provoking humor—to please everyone.

A number of Loup City business men attended the big tractor meet at Fremont last Wednesday and report having had the time of their lives. They left Loup City at midnight in two autos and went to Grand Island, making the trip in one hour and forty-five minutes. They took the 3:15 a. m. train there for Fremont, arriving there about 5 a. m., having all day to take in the show leaving Fremont in the evening for Grand Island and coming back to Loup City in autos. The party consisted of ten men as follows: O. S. Mason, W. F. Mason, M. C. Mulick, Chas. Bass, Aaron Wall, Albert Johnson, A. C. Ogle, E. J. Maus, R. H. Mathew and C. C. Outhouse. They report 300 tractors were on the ground and 125 tractors plowed a 640 acre field, starting at 10:30 a. m., and finishing the job at 2:30 p. m., just four hours time.

THE GIANT AWAKE

We have but recently witnessed an event in this country the like of which the world has never before seen—at least, the world of our knowledge. We have witnessed the entrance into the ranks of a nation's fighting men, of ten million soldiers, waiting for the call to the colors. We see today an army of nearly two million men actually under arms, equipped and assembled, ready to do or die in their county's service.

It is an amazing sight. America, the peaceful; America, the cradle of toleration, the nursery of justice and right—America in arms and springing to the fray!

And the strange feature of the case is, it has astonished even Americans themselves. We had been so long accustomed to hear ourselves referred to as a sleeping giant that we had come to so regard ourselves. We had thought that the affairs of the outside world

A TIP TO UNCLE SAM.

When we were a boy on the farm a part of our duties consisted in "slopping the hogs." These festive occasions always developed among the herd a number of super-hogs who, not contented with receiving their share of the food, insisted upon getting into the trough with all four feet. It then devolved upon us to seize a good tough barrel stave and belabor them upon the snout until they desisted from their hoggish ambitions, and left the trough unobstructed for the rest to feed.

Of course this process developed a terrific amount of squealing from the offenders, which would have led one, unacquainted with the situation, to believe that murder was being committed. But to the initiated it indicated only that the rest of the herd was getting a square deal.

With the rapid development of this animal prototype in practically all lines of business, it occurs to us that this is the proper time for Uncle Sam to grab a barrel stave and get busy. Of course they'll squeal, and the bigger the hogs the more noise they will make, but the listener can rest under the blissful assurance that the rest of the bunch are getting a look-in on the sloop.—M. L. F. in Arcadia Champion.

SECOND DRAFT TODAY

The Sherman county draft board will issue a second call for drafted men today, as the required number of sixty has not been obtained in the first 120 men called. In addition to sixty men needed, ten per cent more or six, will be drafted to make up for possible rejections by the United States examining officers. To date thirty-eight men have been secured from the first draft and it is possible that a large number of exemptions granted by the local board will be reversed by the district board. A complete list of the men called to the colors will be found on this page of The Northwestern.

RESERVE MILITIA COMPANY

Mell Gordon of Arcadia has received the authority to organize a company of not less than seventy-five men for the reserve militia. The company will be composed of Arcadia and Loup City men, and will immediately take the place of the Nebraska Militia that has been sworn into the federal service, as soon as they leave the state. The reserve militia will be put on guard at bridges, public buildings, etc. where the National Guard is now doing duty.

The reserve militia will probably be taken into active federal service when they have had several months training.

June Caprice newest picture for William Fox, "The Ragged Princess," will be shown at the Daddow opera house Saturday, August 18. This is Miss Caprice's third picture for Fox, and is said to be an even greater success than her two previous appearances. The story concerns the adventures of a girl who runs away from an orphanage, hires out as a farm hand, after getting into a pair of overalls, gets adopted by a wicked rich man in the city, finds that the property he controls is really her own, and then marries his halfbrother. Of course Harry Hilliard is the half-brother.

CHRONIC CONSTIPATION.

It is by no means an easy matter to cure this disease, but it can be done in most instances by taking Chamberlain's Tablets and complying with the plain printed directions that accompany each package.

GET READY.

Now is the time that your hens will moult or shed their feathers. This process is rather slow and Nature should be assisted. B. A. Thomas' Poultry Remedy will help your hens to moult causing them to shed earlier and be ready to lay when eggs are highest in the winter. If this remedy does not make good, we will.—J. J. Slominski.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given to property owners to cut the weeds along their premises as provided by law, or the work will be done and costs taxed against the property.—J. D. Callaway.

STOMACH AND LIVER TROUBLE.

No end of misery and actual suffering is caused by disorders of the stomach and liver, and may be avoided by the use of Chamberlain's Tablets. Give them a trial. They only cost a quarter.

The U. S. Treasury department's circulation statement for August 1 shows the per capita circulation in the United States to be $46.53. Within the past year the per capita circulation has shown the phenomenal increase of $7.53 greater than during any other similar period of time.

concerned us not, and that we were sufficient unto ourselves.

But today sees the giant awake. A little groggy, it is true, but rapidly assimilating the power and might that will sweep everything before him when once he gets his stride. It also sees him shorn of his provincialism and taking his rightful place in the world—a man of power and might among men of power and might.

And being awake, we find confronting us one of the most stupendous tasks that ever confronted a people. We find ourselves the probable deciding factor in a world war, the balance of power that shall make this earth a safe place of abode for all men—a world in which right, and not might, shall reign.

And with this great task before us we are going about our preparations as betide a people who have not only confidence in their own powers but a full appreciation of the magnitude of the task as well. While we have not proclaimed it broadcast, yet deep within the hearts of our people there is a firm determination that the sword shall not be sheathed until the cause of humanity has triumphed over the forces of oppression and tyranny. There is but one sentiment heard from the lips of all loyal people: "We must win."

Therein lies the meaning of the quiet deep, but deadly purpose of our people. We must win for humanity's sake. And when were our people ever called upon to perform a task for humanity, that they failed?

Our millions who have answered the call have come cheerfully. They have stepped forward with the fullest appreciation of the work before them, but also with supreme confidence in their ability to perform that task. This is the spirit that conquers, and it will conquer in this instance.

Soldiers of America never in history could it be more truly said that "the eyes of the world are upon you."

CHURCH NOTES.

Presbyterian.

The pastor will preach at 10:30 Sunday morning from the subject: "Consecration." This is a message which we all need, especially during war times. Come and invite a friend to come with you.

Because of the Chautauqua there will be no evening preaching service, nor prayer meeting on Thursday evening.

However, the Christian Endeavor will meet as usual. The subject for consideration will be: "A Definite Purpose and the Success It Wins." Mr. E. G. Taylor will be the leader.

Methodist.

The pastor returned from Kansas City Monday evening and will preach Sunday morning at 10:45 using as a subject, "The Christian Experience." The obtaining and retaining of a definite christian experience and the comforts and blessings of such an experience will be discussed. It will be of special help to all who have been but a little while in the christian way. We are very thankful to all who helped to make the services so successful during our absence. Epworth League at 7 o'clock led by Chris Hansen. Topic, "The Father's Care for Us." The pastor expects to preach at Wiggle Creek at 3:30 o'clock.

THE CHILDREN'S CIRCUS COMING.

The Children's Circus always proves one of the biggest attractions of the entire chautauqua. Only the most competent capable and attractive supervisors are secured for the children's work and the results are most beneficial. Besides the instruction and supervised play, the children put on their own big circus the morning of the last day, and the "stunts" are usually much more complicated and brilliant than one would imagine. There is a carefully laid plan carried out by the supervisors and a brilliant result is achieved by the children in their short five days' work.

RECRUITS WANTED

Captain Clements received a message this morning permitting him to recruit men for his company "I" until further order. He still needs 47 men to complete his company to 150 men, war strength. He has no orders that would permit him to receive any of the men who have been drafted at this time.—Ord Journal.
