PUSH THE FAIRS

Our people should not permit themselves to become so engrossed in the war and kindred subjects as to neglect ample preparations for the county fair this fall.

A county fair is not a luxury, not an indulgence, but one of the most important institutions of any community.

In these days, when the need is urgent that production be stimulated to the maximum, every agency that tends to arouse enthusiasm and a desire to excel should be carefully fostered.

We should bend every energy to getting together this fall the most complete exhibit of the products of the country that it is possible to assemble.

Let us center every energy on the main issue—preparedness—and push it to a successful conclusion.

BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU SIGN

The government has appointed an attorney in each county to look after their interests. It is in place to advise that all persons should consider seriously before filing affidavits for discharge.

All persons are inclined to freely sign without taking into consideration their import. In this county and probably elsewhere the facts of each affidavit will be carefully scrutinized and dealt with according to law.

The above is a timely warning and should be spread all over the land. We understand that several here who have signed affidavits have been called upon the carpet and that in at least one instance the affidavit has been withdrawn before being filed.
