CHURCH NOTES.

Baptist

Morning services as usual. Evening service will begin one hour earlier. B. Y. P. U. at 6:30. Preaching services at 7:30.

We wish to thank the citizens of Loup City and vicinity who so generously helped us entertain our guests from abroad during the association. We want you to know we thoroughly appreciate your kindness. Many thanks. Don't forget that our state convention meets at Hastings next month. Plan to go.

Presbyterian.

The pastor will preach Sunday morning and evening. In the morning the subject will be the second of the promises to the seven churches of Asia, "The Crown of Life." Our evening service will be in the church, and will begin at 7:30 instead of 8:00. Please note the change.

The subject for Christian Endeavor which will meet at 6:30 will be: "Are You a Yes-But?" (A lesson on excuses) C. U. Bitner will be the leader.

We were glad to see several of our new teachers out last Sabbath. We want to extend to all of them who have no regular church home a very cordial welcome to worship and work with us.

Methodist.

The church year closes next Sunday. The financial report will be very good.

indicating an increase over several years past. The pastor is grateful to all who have made this possible. Conference convenes at 8:30 Tuesday, September 11th.

The pastor leaves Monday morning to be gone a week. The parsonage folks would have been glad to remain in Loup City and are sorry they have failed to please. The closing sermons Sunday at 10:30 and 8:00. We have only good will to all.

German.

Rev. Otto Shulze and wife returned last Monday from a western tour to Colorado and Wyoming and report a very pleasant trip.

The Rev. announces German church services for next Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Everybody welcome.

As usual there will be German services every second and fourth Sunday in the month.

WORDS FROM HOME.

Statements That May Be Investigated.

Testimony of Loup City Citizens.

When a Loup City citizen comes to the front, telling his friends and neighbors of his experience, you can rely on his sincerity. The statements of people residing in far away places do not command your confidence. Home endorsement is the kind that backs Dean's Kidney Pills. Such testimony is convincing. Investigation proves it true. Below is a statement of a Loup City resident. No stronger proof of merit can be had.

James Johansen, Loup City, says: "I was in pretty bad shape with my back and couldn't stoop or straighten up without being in misery. Sharp pains often seized me and I dropped to the ground. As soon as I began using Dean's Kidney Pills which I bought at Swanson's Drug Store, I could tell that I was being helped. They surely did good work."

Price 60 cents at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Dean's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Johansen had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs. Buffalo, N. Y.

Written by Old Hank, The Race Track Plunger at Norton, Kansas.

Some times old Pal, in the morning when the dawn is cold and gray, as you lay in the perfumed feathers thinking thoughts you dare not say, thinking of the stunts of the night before—and you smile a feeble smile and you say to yourself for the hundredth time "is it really worth while?"

Then you pick up the morning paper and you see where some saintly man who never was soused in all his life or who never said hell or dam, or who never staid out till the wee small hours and jollied some gay soubrette, but preached on the evils of drinking of cards and of cigarette cut down in the prime of his useful life, the headlines glibly say, snatched by the grim reaper, he has crossed the Great Highway, then they buried him deep and a few friends weep and the world goes on with a sigh, and the saintly is forgotten, even as you and I.

Then you say to yourself, "Well Bill, old scout, when you come to make the jump and the worst and the best must bump the eternal bump, you can snarl to yourself and chuckle, though the path be exceedingly hot when you were on earth, you were go-

Director Turner is godfather of film actors. Kindness to all has gained him title of "Grand Old Man" of the movies. Otis Turner, the director whose first picture for William Fox is "The Mediator," is known as the "grand old man" of the films. Turner is the fairy godfather (if there is such a thing) of all the players who have worked under him, and he holds this place without rival in the moving-picture world. Just after the director started the taking of "The Mediator," a little woman called on him at his office, told her story, and proceeded to faint. Mr. Turner promptly summoned his automobile placed the woman in the tonneau, and broke all records for a dash to the hospital. Here, he got a room for the patient, summoned expert advice, told the nurse to have all bills sent to him and hurried back to his work and his office. "Who was the woman?" A friend asked Otis Turner, "I don't know" answered the director, smiling; "she worked for me in a picture years ago. I've forgotten her name; she had quite a small part. But she'll have to be taken care of." That is why the photoplay world loves Otis Turner. Opera house Saturday night.

SAVE ON COAL

Washington, Aug. 30.—An appeal to coal users to endeavor to reduce consumption as a war time measure was issued today by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States through its committee which is co-operating with the Council of National Defense. "Today coal is a sinew of war," says the appeal, "and he who unnecessarily reduces the country's available stock of coal may curtail the nation's energy in the great industrial conflict.
