

One Day To Win One of The Special Prizes.

Now is the time to get in the Free Press and Anzeiger Herold Auto Contest, win a prize for a few days effort, and lay a foundation of votes for the grand prize. Your friends will help you if you help yourself. Many votes are coming to this office for contestants, and no one should fail to grasp this opportunity for rich reward. Make an effort to get in $25 by Mar. 1st, and you are sure of a prize -- a little more than that amount may win you a diamond ring or one of the other fine specials, and this effort may pave the way to other and bigger success in this big contest. The Ford Automobile is on display at Glass and Evan's Garage.

SPECIAL PRIZES to be AWARDED MAR. 1st TO HUSTLING CANDIDATES

One Genuine Diamond Ring, set in 14 karat solid gold mounting. One Gold LaValliere, set with French Pearls and Rubies, One German Silver non-breakable Mesh Bag, and one Friendship Platinoid Brooch, set with French Pearls and Tourmalines. All of these prizes were purchased from Aug. Meyer & Son, one of Grand Island's leading jewelry firms. They are on display in their window and are guaranteed by them.

A Gold Locket to each Contestant turning in $25.00

These four special prizes will be awarded to the contestants who turn in the largest amount of money over $25 collected on new and renewal subscriptions. Any contestant turning in $25 during this special period, who does not win one of the above special prizes, will receive a beautiful locket. This special prize period dates from the beginning of the contest, Febr. 1st, and closes March 1st, at six o'clock p. m. All money turned into this office by the subscriber will count for the contestant whom he voted for. The regular schedule of votes will be issued on every subscription turned in. These votes will go toward winning the grand prize. Remember it is the money that counts in this special offer. Contestants who live in other towns outside of Grand Island can send their money via mail, but the post-mark must show that the subscriptions are mailed not later than March 1st, at 6 o'clock, p. m. Every contestant has an opportunity of winning a special prize for a special effort.

Rules Governing this Contest

Any lady is eligible, providing conditions set forth below are complied with, but the contest manager reserves the right to reject objectionable nominations.

No candidate will be permitted to transfer votes to another after receiving them for herself.

Ballots sent in for names not properly nominated will be destroyed uncounted.

Every candidate should be regularly nominated on a blank printed in this paper or a similar blank furnished by The Free Press and the Anzeiger und Herold.

A coupon will be printed the first weeks of the contest. This coupon will count for the votes designated therein. All coupons will be dated and will be void unless received at this office on or before the expiration of the time set, as printed. All ballots must be sent to the Contest Manager care of The Free Press and the Anzeiger und Herold with the postage prepaid.

No employee of The Free Press and the Anzeiger und Herold will be eligible as a candidate.

Any question or controversies that may arise are to be settled by the Contest Manager.

In accepting nomination, all candidates must agree to abide by the above conditions. In case of a tie vote the prize will be sold and the money equally divided. The Contest Manager reserves the right to govern the closing date in case of sickness or death.

The way to secure votes is by paying money for subscription or cutting out free votes from the Free Press and the Anzeiger und Herold. Positively no votes will be sold for cash without subscriptions to the papers. Candidates can solicit votes in any part of the United States.

The regular vote schedule will not be increased during the contest except in special ballot periods.

No young lady should hesitate to go into this contest, as everyone has a fair chance to win a handsome and valuable prize. The main object of the Free Press and Anzeiger und Herold has in view is to get subscribers, and the girl who works the hardest is the one we want to have the best prize.

Don't hesitate to ask your friends and neighbors if they take The Free Press and the Anzeiger und Herold. Hustle and there will be nothing to defeat you.
