Bertram Cooke with Cathedral High and Nolan Davis with Lincoln High are making a grand showing on the football field. Also noticed good work from Fellows with the Omaha South 11, in the clash with Lincoln High.

In the South West Conference I notice that Billy Nicks' Prairie View Panthers have a wealth of man power and when the down-staters find the right combination they are going to deal somebody plenty of misery. Look for some surprises when the Panthers return to the grid war in their loop Nov. 9 against Texas college on Blackshear field.

Langston, with her percentage football, will get the maximum out of her eleven which is just ordinary on the ground but dangerous in the air lanes.

Mumford's Southern Cat's won't be caught napping again this year and when these lads are hot, Elmer they're almost immune to asbestos gloves.

As for Wiley, their future opponents can well begin assisting aged women across streets and availing themselves of every opportunity to do good turns for those deserving. The cats have yet to hit their stride this season. When Gaither Fisher, Tom Upchurch, Marion Jones, and Johns Tankersley round into playing form the '46 edition of Pop Long's 11 will be a more potent outfit than the 1945 sectional and national champs . . . And mere wishful thinking ain't stopping 'em.

Joe Shows Good Sportsmanship In Losing Court Battle

CHICAGO (ANP)—Joe Louis smilingly raised the hand of Atty Bindley C. Cyrus over his head last week in superior court here to signify victory in a law suit that cost the world heavyweight boxing champion $2,000.

Cyrus contended for the balance of a $10,500 fee for a divorce suit filed in 1941, but later dropped, by Mrs. Marva Louis, whom he charged paid him only $2,500 at that time. After the court heard both sides of the argument Joe was ordered to pay Cyrus $2,000 of the $8,000 balance.

Smiling, he took Cyrus' hand and held it high to indicate "the winnah," which marks the first defeat for the champion since 1936. Louis was coached and seconded by Atty. William H. Temple while Atty. Sidney P. Brown was in Cyrus' corner.

Joe revealed that he plans to leave next month for a series of boxing exhibitions in Hawaii and does not expect to defend his title before next June. He denied rumors of a possible reconciliation between him and Marva by saying she is "doing well in business out in California and she's happy."

Of Cabbages and Kings

NEW YORK (ANP)—Joe Walcott and Elmer Ray, while not rulers of any fistic realm, are very much in the public discussion these days. It was ever this way when two deadly hitters step in against each other from opposite ring corners. Ray, allegedly fighting under the Jack Dempsy banner is figured to whip Jersey Joe Walcott, proud father of six hungry mouths in addition to "all the neighborhood kids," black & white, of his township, Merchantville, N. J.
