

Author To Issue Monthly Race Relations Bulletin

NEW YORK—(ANP)—Margaret Halsey, author of "Color Blind,"--a white woman Looks at the Negro" announced last week that she and a group of friends who were concerned about racial problems, will issue a monthly bulletin of news and suggestions for friends of their cause.

The project originated out of the letters which began to reach her as soon as her book was published. Many were from individuals who expressed themselves as anxious to promote better racial relations, but did not know how to proceed.

"What we need just now is a great many individuals with a little courage rather than a few persons with a great deal of courage," Miss Halsey said. "For instance, enough people writing letters to members of congress would change the moral climate of this country in one year."

The first issue of the bulletin is promised for December 1. (43) Harper's To Publish White

ECHOES FROM THE MIDWEST CONVENTION"

Ordination Service installing the Rev. O. W. McInnis, pastor of Christ Temple Church at Kansas City, Kansas as the new District Chairman of the Midwestern District through the appointment of the Bishop Wm. A. Washington D. D., Presiding Bishop of the Western Diocese.

The wonderful singing of our Sister West of Christ Temple of Omaha Nebraska and was the highlight of the convention. The glorious weather that our heavenly father gave us thru out the convention.

The annual report of the Bro. Richard McWilliams, Local President of the H.Y.P.U. and District Missionary of the Sunday School and Holiness Young Peoples Union was highly commended by the District Chairman, Rev. Askerneese and delegates, he was also given much credit for the success of the convention.

The kind wisdom and brotherly love shown by our District Chairman Rev. O. A. Askerneese who lead this great meeting thru what "old timers" said was the best ever. The high heavenly spirit brotherly love that permeated throughout the entire session was remarkable Sister Rebecca Young Christ Temple member at Omaha artist work at the piano, was beyond words to express.

In closing we thank the citizens of Lincoln for helping us to make this a successful convention.

And this is the close of the "ECHOES FROM THE MIDWEST CONVENTION"

"Thought of the Week"

Life is the childhood of our immortality. —Goethe

The L. H. S. Senior Choir presented a double assembly Tuesday morning October 22. There were three of our teen-agers singing with the group, they were Betty Wilson, Mattie Sue Nevels, and Frank Burden. They did a very nice job.

I hear there is a party brewing at the Urban League on November 2, 1946. There will be forty guests attending. I hope they have a nice time.

"Question of the Week"

What is your favorite song?

Vonna Finley—Somewhere in the night. (With whom Vonna)

Elois Finley—I Don't Know Why.

Lois Hatcher—I'm Through with Love. (Now Lois)

Freddie Powell— To Each his Own. (Is that a warning, Freddie?)

Bobbie Graham—I have no special one.

Jr. Starks—I like them all.

Robbie Powell—My sugar is so refined. (Holding out on us Robbie.)

Susie Mae Whitehall—I don't know why.

Billie Mosby— One Hundred Years from Today. (Where will you be?)

There was quite a group of teen-agers at the Lincoln High vs. Omaha South game Wednesday evening. Among them were: Bertram Cooke, Frank King, Vonna Finley, Marguerite Harrison, Richard Holcomb, Betty Wilson, and a lot more, the game was really good. The score was 33-7, L. H. S. favor.

The Girl Scouts under the supervision of Miss K. Thompson spent Thursday, October 24, on a picnic.

The 4-H girls spent Thursday, October 24, at a taffy pull at the Urban League.

Say Teen-Agers why not give me some questions for the question of the week?

Bye now, see you next week.
