Why I Do or Don't Go To Church

All of my people were church people. I know I should go to church, but after working all week, I take Sundays to rest.

Julius Cowan

I go to church because there is no better place for me to spend my time. A good Christian does not need any encouragement to attend church.

I find that, if I attend church each Sunday, my day will go better for me.

Mattie Sue Nevels

I go to church on Sunday because it is a relief from the routine of weekly activities. I feel that I simply could not realize the best that is within me without first giving thanks, praise and adoration to God for His many blessings. Going to church after a week's work is a very small sacrifice, if you wish to term it as such.

Mrs. Leona Dean

After working all week including Sunday forenoon, I come home and listen to Rev. Fuller on the radio. I think that is about the same as going to church and I am resting while listening. Going to church is all right but I don't have the time.
