

THE VOICE

Volume 1, Number 6

Lincoln 3, Nebraska

November 15, 1946

Public Interracial Meet Features Conference

Scholastic Achievement

We are proud to note that two of our girls, Misses Robbie and Freddie Powell, were elected to the National Honor Society at Lincoln High School. This National Society honors persons with high scholarship, outstanding leadership, and good citizenship combined with service to school and community. These two girls are worthy of this honor bestowed upon them. They are graduating in January, 1947 class after 2½ years of high school work and plan to register in the Arts and Sciences College at the University of Nebraska for the second semester. Former students from our group thus honored were, Stanley Cooke and Jeanne Malone.

A. S. Simms To Be Ordained

At Christ Temple Church

Brother Alfred E. Simms, will be ordained Sunday morning at the 11:00 a.m. service at Christ Temple Church. Brother Simms will be ordained as a Deacon. The pastor, Rev. T. O. McWilliams, Jr. and Rev. Hull will be in charge of the ordination.

Brother Simms is a sincere Christian and is an asset to any church where he is present.

The public is invited to the ordination services.

Group Action Commended by Organizations of Both Races

CHICAGO—(ANP)—Interracial cooperation bespeaking the unity and fellowship which is the watchword of the National Council of Negro women was effectively displayed when the group's Chicago Metropolitan council opened the regional conference of the fifth district with a public meeting that brought together two outstanding leaders in the field of public affairs, Mrs. Louise Leonard Wright, director of Chicago Council of Foreign relations, and Mrs. Beulah T. Whitby, instructor at Wayne university, to address delegates on "The United Nations on the Way" and "One World" in Good Shepherd Congregational church here October 25.

Messages of commendation greeted the body from the Round Table of Christians and Jews, Anti-Defamation league, National Conference of Christians and Jews, Mayor's Commission on Human relations, National Association of Republican women, South Central association, American Council on Race relations, national sororities of Alpha Kappa, Sigma Gamma Rho, Delta Sigma, Iota Phi Lambda, Zeta Phi Beta, Phi Delta Kappa; women's auxiliaries of the National Dental and Medical associations, National Associations of Business and Professional women, National Association of Colored Graduate nurses, and NAACP.

Business sessions got underway the following day at South Parkway YWCA, with Eleanor Curtis Dailey, regional director, presiding. Workshop themes and round table discussions were the order of the day, covering the topics of "The Role of the Negro Woman in the Struggle for World Unity," "The Council Program as

(Continued on page seven)

PEOPLE YOU SHOULD KNOW

FORMER LINCOLNITE HONORED

Mrs. Leona Brown of New York City was complimented with a two o'clock luncheon Monday by her mother, Mrs. Brevy Lilly, 309 South 20th St. Guests are pictured above:

Seated left to right are: Mrs. Rosemary Butler, Mrs. James King, Mrs. Leona Lilly Brown, Mrs. Harold Stith; Second row: Mrs. Wayne Hassell and Mrs. Henry McWilliams. Standing left to right are: Mrs. Jewell Kelly Jr., Miss Betty Patrick, Miss Ellen Roy, Miss Ruth Norman and Mrs. Ira Gibson.

Sec. 562, P. L. & R.

State Historian Society

State House

Lincoln, Neb.

BR 1946

