Once more the old cry is out, "I'm going to beat Joe Louis." This time it comes from the lips of Elmer (Violent) Ray, who last Friday defeated Jersey Joe Wollcott. Ray won the fight by decision, but from what I can gather he is far from ready for the Bomber Joe. As one sport writer put it, and I quote, "He is as far from being a suitable challenger for Joe Louis as the United Nations is from settling World affairs.

Manger Leo Durocher was asked if Jackie Robinson would get a fair trial by the Dodgers next year.

Durocher said, "Positively and definitely yes. This season Jackie made a great reputation when playing for the Montreal Royals, he batted 349 to lead the league in hitting, batted in sixty-five runs and scored 116 runs himself and stole forty-one bases. When the Dodgers open spring training in Havanna next spring, all eyes will be focused in that direction because this is when we will find Jackie making his bid for a spot in the big Leagues.

Christmas Day will be the scene of another great Bowl game. This will be the Chocolate Bowl game which is to be played in Dallas, Texas. The Champion from the Southwest conference and another outstanding eleven from either CIAA or midwest conference.

This week we find our own Huskers preparing to establish a beach head on the gridiron of the Oklahoma Sooners and then add the finishing touch to a dazzling season at U. C. L. A.
