The morning service was well attended in spite of the cold weather. The combined Youth and Senior choirs rendered the music.

We were happy to fellowship Mr. Lynwood Parker. Visitors were Miss Edna Berry, Kansas City, Missouri, Miss Teresa Motley and Miss Beatrice Motley, Alliance, Nebraska. The sermon subject for Sunday, January 5 will be "The Blind Beggar of Jericho." The pastor and family were made very happy at Christmas. Thank you Quinn Chapel! And special thanks to the Christmas basket committee. Prayer and class meeting Tuesday evening.

EVERYBODY SHOULD BE IDENTIFIED WITH SOME CHURCH.

Sunday School Lesson

By Rev. R. E. Handy

Subject—"The Word made Flesh"
Scripture—John 1:1-18

Memory Verse: "No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, He hath declared him." John 1:18.

—The lesson down to date—
Last quarter our lessons were from Paul's gospel. This quarter we study from John. John opens his treatise with these words:—"In the beginning was the word, and the word was with God, and the word was God.

God's word has been in the world ever since he spoke and formed it out of nothing.

Inspired prophets spoke his word as the Spirit gave them utterance.

It came to full power when God spoke and the Virgin Mary brought forth the Son Jesus.

Jesus spoke the word of Salvation to man, direct from the lips of His Father God.

The word of God has been translated into many languages, but the one common translation which has reached all mankind is the matchless life of his Son.

We have a visible ideal set for us. A God incarnate of Flesh and Blood.

The real need today is for God's professing Christians to set a flesh and blood example to a dying world.

Set this example in deeds of love. Creeds and isms should be thrown out the window. Discard the sham and make our religion a Real flesh and blood religion.

SENIOR

SUNDAY, JANUARY 5, 1947

Theme—1. What Church History Teaches Us. Eph. 2:13-22.

The Church is a building, a physical building, also a spiritual building. The Church is a physical building into which we go for worship. The spiritual church is the church in the hearts of the congregation, not alone of the local church, but of all the congregations of the world, which go to make up the spiritual church of Jesus Christ, who is alone the head, the congregation, or membership being the body of the church.

Let us take note that the Scriptures explicitly gives the word that the church is founded on a strong foundation, and that foundation is Jesus Christ the Lord.

We will find rich treasures of experience in the nineteen hundred years of history which the church has had. The persecutions, the growing institutionalism of the Roman System, the Protestant Reformation and its principles, the missionary movement and its victories, the growth and development of the various denominations.

Shirley Graham made front page history again in New York this week. The authoress-composer has been awarded the $6,500 Julian Messner award for the best book combatting intolerance in America titled: "There Was Once a Slave; the Heroic Story of Frederick Douglas." The book is to be published this spring. Her recent book "Paul Robeson, Citizen of the World" is to be published in Norway, according to the stipulation in her contract. The Grahams seem to have a monopoly on successful writing. Lorenz Graham, brother of Shirley, released his two books on African folklore a few weeks ago.
