Editorial Comments

I hope the masses of Negroes will never get to learned and prosperous to believe that God works in mysterious way his wonders to perform. The Israelites did not get themselves out of Egypt; the Negroes did not get themselves out of American slavery; man's ingenuity cannot explain all that man has become. As old John Burroughs wonderfully said "We stand amid eternal ways."

None but the vengeful and sadistic would hope that Talmadge's soul did not find rest; for he was very little different from the common run of us. Well might we pray that God may rest his soul for he was just one more human prodigal gone astray. May God have forgiven him for he did not know what he was doing.

Be it with his soul as it may, his passing was a break for the Negroes and decent whites of Georgia and for the nation and for the cause of righteousness. Praying people need never fear even Talmadges at their worst!

Another glorious holiday season has passed, which seemed to have afforded everyone a wonderful time. But now vacation time is over and it's back to school for University of Nebraska students. This means back to classes, lessons and final preparatic for those frightening final examinations.

Another one of the students of dear ol' Nebraska U. who you might like to know is Mr. Richard R. Harrison, a graduate student in the School of Music. Mr. Harrison was born and raised through high school in Junction City, Kansas. During high school Mr. Harrison began his musical career by playing in the school orchestra.

After high school graduation, Mr. Harrison attended Washburn College at Topeka and Kansas Wesleyan at Salina, Kansas. During the next four years he played in shows and bands among whom was Lloyd Hunter's band until he finally organized his own dance band.

In 1940 Mr. Harrison enlisted into the United States Army where he was a member of the Ninth Calvary band for the four and a half years he was in the army.

After being discharged from the army Mr. Harrison enrolled in the University of Omaha from which he received his Bachelor of Science degree. He then took up the teaching position in Howard Kennedy school in Omaha, Nebraska

At present time Mr. Harrison is working on his Master's Degree from the University of Nebraska.

THERE'S ALSO A LINEUP FOR TELEPHONE SERVICE...

BUT YOU CAN'T SEE IT!

Today you line up for meat, bread, butter, nylons, shirts, and many other scarce items. You wait patiently for these things, because you can see the line of people ahead of you. At times of peak traffic, telephone service is often slow, particularly long distance service... but you cannot see the long line of other calls ahead of yours. We ask you to try to visualize this telephone line-up... it will help you better understand our situation.
