The evening was spent informally.

Dad—"Son, I'm spanking you because I love you."
Son—"I'd sure like to be big enough to return your love."

"If I cut a beestek in two," asked the teacher, "then cut the halves in two what do I get?"
"Quarters," said the boy.
"Good, and then again"
"Eights"
"Correct, again?"
"Sixteenths"
"Exactly, and then?"
"Thirty-seconds."
"And once more?"

"Hamburger!" cried the little boy impatiently.

Parson—"Do you know where bad little girls go?"
Nellie—"Of course I do!"
Parson—"Where do they go?"
Nellie—"They go down to the railroad station to see the traveling salesman come in."

"If the Dean doesn't take back what he said to me this morning, I am going to leave college."
"What did he say?"
He told me to leave college.

Fullback— (looking at semester grades) Well I'm as famous as Washington now."
Bertrum—"How do you figure that?"
Fullback—"I went down in History."

Gleanings from Urban League

by Katherine Thompson

I would like to take this opportunity to express my deep appreciation for all the assistance we have received from the community with our various groups. Every seed of kindness sown by you will help some plant to be a picture of beauty.

The Rhythm Band gave several numbers for the University Town Club, Monday evening. It was their first trip away from the League. The trip was fun, but the highlights of the evening was the ice cream bars they were served after the program.

This band is open to all children under six years of age. It meets every Saturday at 10.00 A. M.

Janet and Leon Byrons represented the Urban League Bible Class at the party given for Miss Eleanor Posegate. Miss Posegate is leaving for Africa in March.

The 4-H girls are trying hard to finish their books so they can start a new project. They are planning to have a style show in February for their parents.

The Teen-Age Club has been invited to attend a basketball game and party in Omaha, the 25th of January.

All members of the Girl Scouts and their fathers have been invited to attend a father and daughter banquet the 23rd of January. We are all looking forward to this as what can be more fun than doing things with dad.

The Brownies had a delightful time at their Sack Party. We had a program with Phyllis Bradford serving as Mistress of Ceremonies. Most of the members participated in the program.

Ionna Adams received a badge last week in scouting. We are just looking forward to her being a first class scout.

Mrs. Davis Speaks

The Voice is synonymous to goodwill in the superlative—and the sublimity of its publication is highly commendable.

I think by all means it should be in every home in the city of Lincoln. Every man, woman and child should read it. More power to the editors and best wishes for continued success.

Mrs. W. B. Davis
2nd Vice President of the Board of Directors of The Urban League

TRAFFIC SAFETY

Speed is a killer. Why rush ourselves into the unknown? Nebraska road laws limit auto speeds to the conditions which exist; such as road, weather, vehicle, driver.
