The Sports Front With Smoky

By Howard "Smoky" Molden

In the City League the Urban League defeated the O'Shea-Rogers by a score of 27 to 15.

Josh Gibson, 35, died of a stroke at the home of his mother. Gibson like Babe Ruth was a great slugger. The greatest part of his playing years were spent with the Homestead Greys.

Around the sports world and on the campus of Illinois, all eyes are turned to the actions of one Mr. Buddy Young. According to numerous reports he has been offered $125,000 to play for the New York Yankees. But the Yankee officials have denied this. Buddy failed to return to the Campus after the Christmas holidays, but Wednesday night he returned to the Illinois U Campus and was on hand for Thursdays classes.

There will probably be much comment on the subject as to whether Buddy should take this offer or not. Money is a great thing and a college education is also priceless. He will have to choose between making it now or waiting a few years and then getting it. There is not a more widely favorably publicised Athlete in the U. S. than Mr. Young from Illinois. So while he is making up his mind, maybe he should take a few things into consideration.

Today there is a great cry whirling across the continent. That cry is to clean up sports. I think we can best sum up this by saying. A better understanding of sportsmanship and play the game for the game regardless of Race, Color or Creed.

STOP. PERIOD STOP.

Trying to stop on a dime, especially in winter, wrecks the driver "miser." Coasting past the STOP is "costing." Let's stop picking up so many pieces.
