Triangle Club Sandwich

3 slices toast
Chili Sauce
American Cheese
Mayonnaise
Sliced tongue
Lettuce
Stuffed Olives
Sweet Pickles

Spread a slice of toast with chili sauce, cover it with sliced cheese, then with a second slice of toast spread with chili sauce. Spread the top of the sauce with mayonnaise, cover with sliced tongue and the third slice of toast spread with mayonnaise. Cut into four triangles and stand upright on a plate, garnish the center with crisp lettuce, stuffed olives and sweet pickles.

Maple Prune Mousse

1 cup maple syrup
2 egg whites
3/4 tsp. gelatin
3 tbsps. cold water
1 cup pureed prunes unsweetened
1 cup chopped nuts
1/2 cup cream, whipped
1/4 tsp salt
1 tsp. Vanilla

Soak the gelatin in cold water and dissolve it over hot water. Boil maple syrup until it just reaches the point where it will spin a thread when it is poured from a spoon. In the meantime, beat the egg whites stiff, pour the hot syrup over the beaten egg whites while stirring with a brisk folding movement. Add dissolved gelatin, prunes, salt, vanilla, nuts, fold in the whipped cream and pour into glasses. Chill before serving.

for a $1,500,000 housing job in Baltimore; and a $2,000,000 defense project in Washington, D.C.

With the war slump in construction work, Mr. Christian came to New York. At about the same time Gale Agencies decided to bring Negro executives into the firm and had turned to the Urban League of greater New York for guidance in the selection of an Accountant. Mr. Christian was recommended and in the three years of association with the organization has been encouraged, in his position as Controller, to exploit his capabilities fully.

He takes away the doubt and mystery of competing and winning in the American business world.

"Color may be a handicap," he says, but it is not a barrier. It is obvious that a Negro must 'do a better job'—but then anybody should do a better job if he wants to get ahead."

"Many of the problems facing Negro boys and girls are solved by proper technical training and determined effort," he explains. "There is nothing difficult about it—"

You Get More
For Your Money
Electrically today
Than Ever Before

Perhaps, it is hard to believe, with the rising costs of today, but it is a fact that electricity costs less today than ever before. Since Consumers Public Power District has been in operation, electric rates have steadily gone down. Today, you pay less per kilowatt hour than even before the war. And think of the many valuable services electricity provides for mere pennies.

Yes, it is true you get more for your money electrically today than ever before.
