Sunday School Lesson

By Rev. R. E. Handy

Subject: Intimate Words With His Disciples.

Scripture Text: John 14:16

Memory Verse: "Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you." John 15:14.

The Lesson in its present day application.

It is possible to have friendship with Jesus if you fulfill the conditions laid down for that friendship.

God is a friend to man and He desires the friendship of man for Him. To be this friend you must be a friend to all mankind, because He gave His son for all. As man grows in this friendship more and more he loves his fellow man and practices right relations with them.

You can not have spiritual power without love, you can not have love and be selfish.

The test of our friendship for Jesus is our obedience to His commands. We claim friendship but compromise as to the quality of that friendship.

"Ye are my friends if ye do whatsoever I command you." You are not to change it, obedience in fact, in spirit, in thought and in habit.

Be a true friend to Jesus.
