Miss Ruth Norman, daughter of Mrs. Jamie C. Norman of Omaha, is one of the universities most talented and versatile young coeds. While in Central high school, Miss Norman participated in the Road Show, which is an all school variety show, and received superior and excellent ratings in several music contests. Upon graduation in 1944, Miss Norman received a music and a La Vern Naves scholarship to Nebraska University.

Miss Norman was a delegate at the Methodist University Students Regional Conference at Oklahoma University. She also was a Counselor and teacher on "Understanding Races" at a Nebraska Methodist high school students conference. Miss Norman was recently chosen one of the outstanding Coed Counselors of the year. She is a Y. W. C. A. Commission group leader and a cabinet member. Also included in her activities is being a member of Orchesis, a modern dance club, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority and Kappa Pi, a Methodist sorority.

Miss Norman plans to take her graduate work at the Julliard School of Music. She hopes to prepare herself to instruct piano, harmony and choral work. Miss Norman's hobbies are music and tennis.

rob the country of its wealth. In the interest of these foreign groups, corrupt Negro politicians have kept wages and the prices of Haitian products down to the lowest levels in the West Indies. Yet the prices of imported goods have been allowed to soar unchecked. In the face of this foreign economic control one wonders how much a $20,000,000 loan would benefit the Haitian people.

Our Children

By Mrs. W. B. Davis

Training

Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it. Proverbs 22:6. Almost every mother realizes the importance of giving her child the right training but too few are willing to pay the price. By price I do not mean dollars and cents, but time. It takes a lot of time to train a child. It is a full time job if we will only regard it as such. Father Flanagan says, "A mother's first duty is to her husband and children, and the proper maintenance of a home is definitely a full time job."

The child needs emotional freedom he can exercise with the assurance of at least a tolerant attitude. Emotional instability of his parents limits his freedom. Criticism, jealousy, suspicion, and violent temper outbursts create an atmosphere of nervous tension. Even when parents do not neglect their children they sometimes feel disturbed by the discipline of the parents and the way it is applied.

Training a child requires patience and understanding. Bad habits, once they are acquired, are not changed over night, while good habits are the result of constant effort. We must make allowance for mistakes and blunders.

The oldest Negro newspaper is the Christian Recorder, organ of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, begun in 1848.

Canada Lee Planning Black and White Roles in MacBeth and Othello

New York (ANP) Canada Lee, who did a change of face by playing a white-face lead in "The Duchess of Malfi," is planning new laurels via the two-tone route. As first man in "Macbeth" he would do a repeat of his earlier triumph, but in "Othello" he would let nature take its course.

Having concluded a run with "Body and Soul," Lee is reported to be headed for the west coast to select a cast for the two plays, with the idea of having the film industry finance the undertaking. The training period behind, the group would gradually work its way back to Broadway. The two shows would alternate nightly.
