CHILD OF MY LOVE

Child of My love, fear not the unknown tomorrow;
 Dread not the new demand life makes of thee.
 Thy ignorance doth hold no cause for sorrow.
 Since what thou knowest not is known to Me.
 Thou canst not see to-day the hidden meaning
 Of My command, but thou the light shalt gain;
 Walk on in faith, upon My promise leaning,
 And as thou goest, all shall be made plain.
 One step thou seest—then go forward boldly,
 One step is far enough for faith to see;
 Take that, and thy next step shall be told thee.
 For step by step the Lord is leading thee.
 Stand not in fear thy adversaries counting;
 Dare every peril, save to disobey;
 Thou shalt march on, all obstacles surmounting,
 For I, the strong, will open up the way.
 Therefore go gladly to the task assigned thee,
 Having My promise, needing nothing more
 Than just to know where'er the future find thee,
 In all thy journeying, I go before.

Problems in Make-Up

The oblong facial type has to be so made up as to create an illusion of shortening and widening the face.

Select the lightest tone of cheek rouge agreeable with the complexion and apply in a carefully blended circle to center of cheek. Use natural eyebrow line. Use eye-shadow on upper lids and carry shadow towards the brow only on the outer part. Apply lip rouge full at the corner of the lower lip.

The hair style for the oblong face should also be styled so as to create an illusion of shortening and widening the face. The hair should be parted in the center if the hair tends to be long. Wear the hair long with soft curls at the nape of the neck so as to give width to the lower part of the face. Do not wear the hair in an up-sweep as it tends to give length to the face.

South Will Take Lead in Race Relations, Predicts Rev. LaFarge

New York (ANP) In a few years the south will be in the vanguard of the interracial movement, was the gist of a prediction made by the Rev. John LaFarge, S. J., at a weekly tea-forum of the Catholic Interracial Council here recently. He pictured the south as taking this move toward better race relations in an effort to halt the trend toward communism.

Rev. LaFarge, who is the council's chaplain, expressed the belief that the "reactionary white supremacy elements will be pushed into the background while the liberal elements become more and more influential." As an indication of the forward-moving trend in the south, he cited the statement of the Jesuit provincial for the south which announced its number one work as "the promotion of interracial justice and better race relations."

As for communism, he said, "The need for an effective program to combat communism is bringing this issue to the fore among Catholics. Racial tension has for a long time furnished a happy hunting ground for the Communists.

"The fact that we have a positive race relations program worked out gives us a wonderful opportunity to show how our beliefs can be implemented by action. Our position must be very correct, since it is being closely watched. Slackness, prejudice and carelessness on our part gives communism its chance."

The Sports Front With Smoky

The "Inside" on Buddy Young

Buddy Young passed up a chance to play at home with the Chicago Rockets, mainly because he will be a bigger hit as a New York Yankee. Several of his former U. S. Navy mates at Fleet City Calif.), that unbeaten wartime eleven, are now Yankees, these, headed by Bruiser Kinard and Nate Johnson, literally begged Buddy to come with them into the Yankee Stadium.

These enthusiastic Fleet City aces have the knack of springing Buddy "scot-free" into enemy secondary defenses, and think the ex-Illinois streak will turn the AAC upside down, next season. Windy Wallace, ex-Iowa star and Buddy's best pal, declares there is no doubt that Young will receive real cooperation from these men because they like him extremely well. The Yankees may set box-office marks with Buddy, whom Kinard describes, saying, "He's not only a scat-back, he is a compact package of 170 pounds on a five foot-five inch frame. He has power and speed."

Jackie Robinson who for months has been trying to make a place for himself on the Brooklyn Dodgers, has finally reached his goal, today his dream really came true. He was purchased from Montreal. Jackie who has been playing second base will probably have a shot at first base. But wherever Jackie stops he'll be in there doing his very best.
