To The Editor:

I should like to see more pictures of Lincoln people in The Voice. I also think the paper should sell for 5 cents instead of 10 cents.

There are perhaps any number of persons who would like to ask these same questions. We too would like to have more local persons featured in The Voice. We are getting a greater response every week, but it simply takes time to get the public to realize that this is their paper and it will be what they make it. As to the price of the paper, few people who are not engaged in newspaper work have any idea what it costs to operate one. We have discussed with a few people what we have spent to date and they have nothing more to say. At $2 a year you get the Voice for less than 4c per copy.

To The Editor:

I would like to suggest that you get several persons throughout the city to gather news items of general interest to all people.

Rev. R. L. M.

We now have Miss Ann Watson Southerman of Ann's Beauty Shoppe, 704 No. 22nd St., Mr. John Miller, 309 So. 20th St., and Mr. Charles Washington, 916 P Street, together with the reporters of each church, and each feature writer. We believe that the ministers could assist in getting the congregations to realize the importance of sharing an account of their activities.

Pythagoras bade his disciples be silent, or speak what is better than silence.

Silently one by one, in the infinite meadows of heaven Blossomed the lovely stars, the forget-me-nots of the angels.

Interview of Talented Teen-Agers

This week, I will interview Winifred (Peaches) Winston. She was born in Lincoln, Nebraska June 25, 1933.

Her life's ambition is to sing and play the piano. She stated that she would rather play for her own enjoyment than for a crowd. She has been taking voice under Miss Robbins for almost two and one half years and piano under the direction of Miss Ruth Dreamer for almost eight years.

The greatest experience in her musical life was her first concert, presented to the Mary Bethune Literary and Art Club at the Urban League on her 13th birthday, another big event of this occasion, she wore her first formal.

Her first appearance was at the age of six.

Peaches has won the Lincoln Music Teachers Association scholarship six times, for both playing and singing.

She dislikes Symphony orchestra, but she likes King Cole and Cab Calloway very much.

She has kept a scrap book for about the last ten years, of the things she has done pertaining to music and recitals.

She wants to take up voice, Classical music, and dramatics
