Saturday, May 2, the traditional university festival known as Ivy Day takes place on the Campus. The formation of the Ivy chain made up of senior coeds and the Daisy chain of junior girls precedes the presentation of the May Queen and her Court. Thirteen junior men were chosen at this time for membership to the Innocents, men's honorary organization and fifteen junior women are tapped for membership to the women's honorary organization—Mortor Board. Another part of the all day ceremony is the presentation of the Ivy Day Poet and Orator and singing by various organized groups on the campus.

Courtland Bivens of St. Louis, Missouri, has led one of the most versatile and interesting lives of any on the campus. After graduating from the famed Sumner High School in St. Louis, Mr. Bivens majored in engineering at both Tuskegee and Howard Universities.

In 1941, Mr. Bivens became Private Bivens by joining Uncle Sam's Army. After completing his training in Officers Candidate School, Private Bivens changed his title to Lieutenant Bivens and still later to Captain Bivens.

While serving overseas in Europe and Asia, Captain Bivens was Communications Officer of Anti-Aircraft Artillery regiment. Captain Bivens also had the honor and distinction of serving with General George Patton in the Third Army in Europe. During his five years in the Army, Captain Bivens earned five battle stars and was decorated twice.

Having returned from the wars in May, 1946, Mr. Bivens is now a pre-Med student in the University of Nebraska and is a member of the Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity.

Your Face and Your Future

I might go as far as to say that your face is your future. For a greater part of your future definitely depends upon your appearance, which is noticeably your face.

Since we have assumed this as a fact; we must do something about our future. One of the things that bother us most is the skin that has numerous pimples and other blemishes, these may be caused by several things—namely, an inefficient diet as in the case of an excessive amount of sweets, skin rashes due to certain acid foods that do not agree with your system, a constitutional disorder, and above all a skin that is not kept clean.

After washing your face with a good facial soap, give it a good thick coat of cleansing cream, leave it on a few minutes then wipe it off gently with a soft towel or tissue. After this is done tab a little astringent (witch hazel or diluted alcohol may be substituted) notice the difference in the appearance and texture.

There is no cure for freckles—so do not try to bleach them out with a strong bleach, lemon juice (if you are not allergic to it) is a nice bleach for them. It does not bleach them away, but merely lightens them. The best thing I've found for freckles is a good 8 or 9 hours sleep, for over fatigue causes them to appear darker and deeper.
