Sunday School Lesson

By Rev. R. E. Handy

Subject—"The Struggle Against Baalism"

Scripture—I Kings: 18

Memory Verse—"Near me, O Lord, hear me, that this people may know that Thou art the Lord God, and that Thou hast turned their heart back again." Ist Kings 18:37

—The Lesson in Its Present Day
Setting—

One of the objections we were supposed to be fighting for in the late war was freedom of worship.
There can be no freedom of worship unless state and church are seperate.

One of the doctrines of Baalism was a compulsion of a single religion under the rule and guidance of the state.

The Nazis ruled in religion by advancing the state as supreme.
The Soviet hold class as the thing to worship. The Creeds of these countries are that this life and its immediate ends are the only values that count. They hold that the worship of God is only an opiate for weak minded people.
This doctrine is one of the tenants of Baalism.

But in his day Elijah stood on Mt. Carmel and cried, "Choose this day whom you shall serve.
If the Lord be God, worship Him and if Baal be God, serve him."

How clearly the call rings out to Christianity today. So many false gods, so many seducing creeds in a corrupt generation and a wicked nation.

The only way the true church can be seen is for Christians to pray and pray, and pray for a great revival and for the spiriual fire to fall once more.
