Arkansas Democrats Forming State-Wide Organization

A move to cover every county in the state is being made by the Arkansas Democratic Association, according to an announcement here last week by Dr. J. M. Robinson, president.

Letters to Arkansas Democrats informed them "we wish to organize the voters of each ward in cities of the first class, and of each township where colored voters reside. Each club will be entitled to one delegate to the State Convention for the first 50 members or less, and one additional delegate for each additional 50 members.

The Arkansas Negro Democratic Association is promoting a fund raising campaign, Dr. Robinson said, and every Negro Democrat is urged to contribute $1 to the fund. About 9,000 Negroes voted in the Democratic primary last year, Dr. Robinson revealed, with 3,000 voting in Pulaski county.

Counties already organized by his association include Miller, Jefferson, Ashley, Sebastian, Hot Springs, Jackson, Hampstead, Conway, Faulkner and Pulaski, Dr. Robinson said.
