URBAN LEAGUE YARD CLEAN-UP AWARDS

For the 15th year, the Lincoln Urban League has completed its Annual Yard Clean-Up Campaign as one of the features of its health week educational program. With the objective of encouraging the Negro population to better their health status by improvement of their yards, homes and home surroundings. Each Negro home in Lincoln is inspected and prizes awarded for those judged to be the cleanest or those with the greatest amount of beautification. The awards as made by the committee are:

Clean-up Class Winners

First Prize, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Coulter, 2444 South 9th Street; Second prize, Mr. and Mrs. George Randol, 1029 Rose Street. Third prize, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Lintz, 2230 T Street.

Honorable Mention

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harris, 2303 South 8th Street; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Neal, 1943 T Street; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scott, 1928 U Street; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Foulz, 1945 T Street; Mr. and Mrs. James Fuller, 2244 S Street

Beautification Class Winners

First prize, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Page, 336 South 20th Street; Second prize, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Caesar, 1922 T Street; Third prize, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Starks, 1955 U Street.

Honorable Mention

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Colley, 847 Sumner Street; Mr. and Mrs. Mearle Dean, 1902 U Street; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hightower, 1924 T Street; Mrs. Anna G. Smith, 645 South 20th Street; Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Williams, 2525 South 14th Street.

The committee in making these awards recognizes that a great many of the 256 homes visited are equally as clean or beautiful as the winners, but they based their decisions primarily on the improvements made over previous years. To-date, there have been 45 different winners in both classes and practically every home owner is still maintaining their

Annual Volunteer's Party Proclaimed Best in Years

The Annual Volunteer's Party given Saturday evening, May 17 at the Urban League Building was proclaimed one of the best ever given.

This party is an annual event given by the Urban League Staff to persons who have given service in any way during the year. Plenty of free eats and lots of fun always marks this special activity.

About 100 persons were on hand to enjoy the party.

Mens Club to Celebrate

The Urban League Mens' Club will have a "get-to-gether" the last Wednesday in this month (May 28th). All members are urged to attend. There will be plenty of refreshments which will be free.

May 28th marks the end of the weekly meetings. Thereafter, the meetings will be held the first Wednesday in each month.
