Hi Kids;

It's time for all those hikes and moon-light picnics because school is out and it is time for our much needed vacation (Don't You Think?)

We hope you are planning to go to Hastings, Nebraska for the recital to be given by Peaches and Marva Winston, Next Sunday, June 15, 1947, and if enough of you want to go we will charter a bus and you know that would be most great.

WHAT ARE YOU?

(Taken partly from the annual Whittier Greenleaf). Look in the first column for your first initial and in the second column for your last initial.

Now that the Muny Pool is open we can go to the pool and take a nice long dip, so come on gang, let's try it, the water's fine.

NOW FOR A LITTLE HUMOR
Mother—"After all he's only a boy and boys will sow their wild oats."
Father—"Yes, I wouldn't mind if he didn't mix in so much rye."
"Can you drive with one arm?"
"Sure"
"Okay, have an apple."
He—"Shall we sit here and talk?"
She—"No, thanks, I am so tired. Let's dance instead."
He—"May I kiss you?"
She—"Heavens! Another amateur"

Well so much for that—
Until Next Week, So Long,
Dotty, Ruby, Loretta
