Sunday School Lesson

By Rev. R. E. Handy

Subject—The Fall of the Southern Kingdom
Lesson Text—2nd Kings 25;
Jeremiah 37

Memory Verse—Righteousness
exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people. Proverbs 14:34

In our lesson today we find that when Nebuchadnezzar carried King Jehoiachin to Babylon he placed on the throne the young king's uncle, another son of Josiah, and changed his name to Zedekiah. He was only a youth of twenty-one when he began to reign, and he proved to be wicked and weak—scarcely more than a puppet in the hands of his nobles.
Zedekiah goes all the way to Babylon, evidently to swear allegiance to Nebuchadnezzar. Yet after making a covenant with him and swearing fealty, Zedekiah enters into a league with neighboring princes, and especially with Egypt. Then he revolts against Babylon.

The Egyptians are defeated by Nebuchadnezzar. Over the remanant left in the land Nebuchadnezzar appointed as governor a Jew named Gedeliah. He urged the refugees to be good subjects of the king of Babylon, but ere long he was murdered by Ishmael of the royal seed. Then the entire colony, contrary to Jeremiahs advice, migrated to Egypt, taking Jeremiah with them. We hear of them no more.

There was an ancient Greek proverb, "The mill of God grinds late, but grinds to powder," expressing the thought that God's judgements tarry long, but that when they arrive they are crushing ones. Nothing could better illustrate this than the judgement meted out upon Judah.

Missionaries

in spite of the fact that they have been working exclusively among colored people.

Before the plan could be effected it was necessary to transfer church leadership from missionaries to indigenous hands. And now that this is being accomplished, the future of Negro missionaries in India is a practical certainty. The churchman with whom I talked about this indicated that the Indian Christian Church has been interested in this matter for many years but because financial support for missionary work in India was being derived from certain white church organizations, the latter determined the personnel to be used in this most important service.

It should be pointed out that if this field of missionary work is accepted by our churches in America, which it surely should, it will be done on a reciprocal basis. In the past America has dictated the terms of missionary work in India on its own without exchanging ministers and church workers. As a part of the worldwide Christian community, the Indian Christian Church has its unique contribution to make to world brotherhood, and should be encouraged to do so.

Another interesting prospect of this proposal is the fact that we would be obliged to share the financial responsibility of spreading Christianity in India. Without considering the merits of the opportunity, the immediate answer would be that Negro churches maintain missionary activi-
