Sunday School Lesson

By Rev. R. E. Handy

Subject—Enduring Contributions of the nation.

Text—Psalm 119. Isa. 2. Micah 6
Memory Verse—"He will teach us of His ways, and we will walk in His paths." Isa. 2:3

—The Lesson To Date—

In the 119 Psalm the psalmist compares the word of God to a lamp for our feet.

No one wishes to walk in darkness lest they stumble and suffer injury.

How much truer it is, that as we walk the dangerous highway of life. We have a light to guide our souls into that safe haven of rest and not suffer the loss of our souls.

At such a time it is truly a blessing to have a bright clear light. The word of God, as found in the Bible is that light.

The word of God to rule and guide our footsteps cannot be over-stressed, for it will reveal His will for us and will keep our lives pure.

Read today's scriptures. It is a chart for daily living you are taught to deal justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with God.

"If you practice justice you will give every man what rightly belongs to him. If you are merciful, you will give not only what he is due, but will give what he did not earn, and should not have, because you love.

It is not in the nature of man to be humble. We are stiff necked and proud.

What an example Jesus left. Although He was the Son of God. He humbled Himself, and suffered death on the cross, that you and I might live.

Take this lamp. Read His word. Do not let it gather dust upon the shelf, and as your enlightenment in God's word grows, you will find yourself becoming more like Him.

Council Theme to Be
"The Negro Church and the Government"

"The Negro Church and the government" will be the main topic of discussion of the National Fraternal Council of Negro churches at Dallas, Texas during its two-day-14th annual meeting at Bethel AME church.

This meeting will mark the first time that government policies will be presented to the church by high government officials, said Bishop J. H. Clayborn, president of the council.

"I feel," he remarked, "and my executive staff agrees unanimously, that this is the propitious time to have a full over-all discussion by the church leaders of the policies of the government, especially where they affect our people.

"And further, since so many fine Negroes are high up in government service, we feel that the church has a call on their services in order that they may help their own people better," he added.

High government officials will tell about housing, health, savings bonds, veterans administration, employment, social security, farming, education and other government programs affecting the lives of Negroes. Church leaders will also discuss the most effective plans for combatting lynching and racial discrimination, plus the best methods of lobbying for proper legislation in congress and the various states to abolish racism.

AROUND THE HOUSE

• A cork place mat makes an excellent bulletin board for the kitchen. Tack one on the wall for family messages, last-minute reminders, grocery lists and favorite recipes.

• While slipcovers are still slightly damp, iron the flounces only, and work the slipcover into place over the chair or davenport. This not only saves ironing time, but produces a better fit and cuts down on shrinkage.

• If you don't like your summer cold drinks diluted by melting ice cubes, try this: Make the ice cubes of the same beverage, then add the cubes to the drink just before serving.
