Joe Louis Jr. Arrives from Mexico, Accompanied by Mother,
Sister and Nurse

Accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Marva Louis, and his four-year-old sister, Jacqueline, Joe Louis Jr. made his first appearance in Chicago, when the family alighted from a plane at Municipal airport here Wednesday night. Also in the party was Senorita Rosaria Lopez, nurse to the 15½ pound, one month old addition to the Louis' family.

Joe Sr. was not at the airport to meet his family, because he was unable to arrive from the Tam O'Shanter Country Club in time, however, in a telephone conversation with Marva early Wednesday morning, he instructed her to ask photographers not to make pictures of the youngster. Later in the evening, Joe met his son.

The champ remained in town until Monday and then left for Kankakee where he intends to practice for three weeks for a golf tournament he is sponsoring in Detroit.

M. A. Dillon, teacher at Langston University and Rupert Roett of Huston, Texas made a successful showing in the recent City Tennis Tournament. They played singles and doubles together, winning the first match and losing the second to an outstanding Lincoln player.

The smooth-serving Dillon, as he was called and Roett are taking work at the University of Nebraska this summer.

UN, Socialism Only Hope for World's Backward Races Dubois Says: "Socialism is Attack on Poverty."

The only hope for the backward races of the world, in which the American Negro is by economic position closely allied, lies in the United Nations and socialism, according to Dr. W. E. B. DuBois.

Dr. DuBois was speaking at an instructive meeting of the recent NAACP convention on his first public appearance since his return to the organization two years ago. He is one of the founders of NAACP.

Advising an understanding of socialism, the noted editor and educator declared that there was "no cause for alarm at charges of being a Communist if the aim was the abolition of world poverty."

He pointed out that poverty was "unnecessary", that the colonies, "quasi-colonial regions" and the American south were the most poverty stricken portions on earth. He said that socialism constituted an attack on poverty and that the United Nations was the greatest hope of the world today.

Enjoining his audience to cease being "timid," to break their intellectual shackles and learn something about economic forces and join the ranks of the great social thinkers of the past century, he said:

"Most intelligent people of the world today, even in the civilized part of the earth, believe that poverty is normal and necessary and that because of this inevitable poverty most human beings must be ignorant, diseased and to a large extent criminal."

"The persons who believe this are ignorant of the plain teachings of science and industrial technique, especially in the 19th and 20th centuries. They still think and act in accord with the beliefs of primitive ages when scarcity of food, difficulties of technique and ignorance of natural forces made the world a desperate fight between human beings for survival, in which murder, war, cheating and stealing were the only paths of survival for most of the human species."

Trends of government in most "civilized parts of the world," tend toward socialism he asserted, and called the New Deal and social service merely other terms for socialism.

The United Nations was viewed as a move by mankind to end war even though its work so far has only been preliminary.

Dr. DuBois exhorted Negroes to "stand back of democracy, in industry, and understand the need of better methods of production which would bring a more just distribution of wealth.

"We must not let ourselves be scared and intimidated by the fear of being called Communist, by the smearing of Henry Wallace, the widespread attempt of a monopolized press to keep the peoples of the world from knowing the truth about work and income."

"You're the first girl I ever kissed" he said as he shifted gears with his knees.

Father Divine Stops Cash
To U. S. Until Poll Tax Ends

No more federal funds from "Peace" children until all American citizens have equal rights to the use of the ballot, is the substance of an announcement made here last week when the treasury department noted that funds, which had constantly been flowing into the United States treasury from Father Divine's followers, had suddenly ceased.

One of Father's strict commands is that every member of his flock must pay back all the money he owes. If by chance he cannot locate the person to whom he owes the money, it must be sent in to the government.

For several years the treasury department has been receiving funds from Father's angels or saints, arranging all the way from $1 to more than $200.

Suddenly, the 'conscience fund' stopped, just at a time when the department could use some extra cash. Then came a curt note from the self-styled "God" telling the treasury that no more of these "truly wonderful" dollars would be sent to the department until the poll-tax bill was removed from the southern states.
