Attends Funeral

Mrs. B. Moss has returned from Wichita, Kansas, where she was called because of the death of her brother, Sherman S. Wilson, who had lived there for 14 years and was a member of St. Paul A.M.E. Church.

Funeral services were held there August 2, and she returned immediately.

The wedding of Miss Bettye Louise Tarpley was held at the home of the parents of the bride, Aug. 10, 1947, in the presence of about 50 friends and relatives.

The bride wore a beautiful white gown of polk-a-dot nylon with a finger tip veil. Her bouquet was of white gladiolas and satan tapers. In attendance was her sister, Mrs. Ruth Williams, matron of honor. She wore a lovely pink evening gown with a corsage also of white gladiolas.

The groom looked very handsome in his dark blue suit and black shoes. His best man was Johnnie Duncan.

After the wedding a reception was held at the Urban League lounge, serving 200 people.

A very lovely 3-tier white cake decorated with dainty little roses and topped with a cute little brown bride and groom.

Mrs. Elmira Robinson and Mrs. Margie Turner were hostesses.

Mrs. Juanita Cozan, Miss Jackie Smith, Miss Jackie Farr, Mr. Walter Bell, Mr. Bud Turner, and Mrs. Dorothy Dean assisted Mrs. Basilia Bell in the kitchen.

Those in charge of the gift room were Miss Clintana Smith and Miss Marguerite Gill. Many beautiful gifts were received.

After the reception the bride and groom left for Benton Harbor, Mich., to spend their honeymoon for one week. After they return, home to their friends will be at 1945 Vine St.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Clyde Rodgers, mother of the groom, Miss Jackie Farr from York, Nebr., and Miss Wilma Starnes of Omaha.

A shower in honor of Miss Bettye Tarpley was given at the home of Mrs. Basilia Bell, with 27 guests attending.

Games were enjoyed by all. Miss Tarpley received many lovely gifts.

Refreshments were served and a lovely time was had by all.

The evening was closed by a mock wedding with Mrs. Ruth Williams marrying Mrs. Maude Williams. The "wedding" was performed by Mrs. Margie Turner.

Rev. R. L. Moody Attends Camp Meetings and Conventions

Rev. Robert L. Moody, pastor of Northside Church of God recently attended the annual Interstate Camp Meeting and Conventions of the Church of God. These meetings were held at Topeka, Kansas. They were very good and many souls were helped. Some were saved, some sanctified, and some healed.

The twenty-odd congregations and missions are located in the states of Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, and parts of Illinois and Oklahoma. The Interstate Association plans to buy a beautiful ten acre camp ground just on the outer edge of the city of Topeka. The plan is to buy four government barracks units which will be used for, (1) Dormitories, (2) Dormitories for women, (3) A unit of private rooms, and (4) A unit for dining hall, kitchen, and office.

Rev. Moody left Aug. 6 for their National Camp and Conventions for the Sunday School and Youth Fellowship at West Middlesex, Pennsylvania. There is a fully developed camp ground of 127 acres, with a great tabernacle, several large dormitories, and scores of homes and cabins. It is really as nicknamed, a "Mount of Blessings."

The Youth Fellowship was in charge of the 2:30 p.m. services each day. Able young preachers from various parts of the U. S. were chosen to preach on different aspects of the theme, "Christ Pre-eminent." Rev. Moody had for his subject, Monday, Aug. 11, "Christ Pre-eminent in the Home."

Personal Mention

Mrs. Mary Donaldson of Camden, Mo., is residing in the city indefinitely.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wiley, Mr. and Mrs. Corey Hopkins, and Mrs. Brewer, all of Omaha, were guests of Rev. and Mrs. John S. Favors, Sunday.

Mrs. Patricia Caswell of Marcelinal, Mo., and Mr. Elmer Martin from Hannibal, Mo., were united with Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Blackwell and their two children, Wm. Jr. and Ray, from Parsons, Kansas, left Sunday after spending a week with Mr. Blackwell's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blackwell.

Conways Will Move to Cheyenne

Mr. and Mrs. Bradfield Conway, 2117 T, have rented their home furnished and will move to Cheyenne, Wyo., about Aug. 15

Mrs. Conway who has worked under Civil Service at the Lincoln Post Office has resigned to become hospital attendant for the Government in Cheyenne.

They will live with her aunt, Mrs. James Smith.
