Sunday School Lesson

R. E. Handy

Subject:—"The Wisdom of Harmonious Living."

Scripture:—Prov. 3, 4, 15, 19, Matt. 5; Jas. 3.

Memory Verse:—"Blessed are the peace-makers, for they shall be called the children of God." Matt. 5:9.

Present Day Application—

One out of every three couples who are married this year will wind up in the divorce court. There are four hundred and eighty-six different branches of the Christian religion in the United States. Our country is divided in its thinking. North, south, east and west. The world is divided into two armed camps. Democracy and totalitarianism. There is a woeful lack of harmony in this old world.

A piano improperly tuned will only give off notes that are hurtful to the ears.

Men and women who are attracted toward each other should see to it that their ideals are in harmony.

Even in the worship of God ideas clash, and there are too many isms in the institution that Christ founded, who laid as the foundation stone, "One Lord, one Faith, one Baptism." World leaders can not apply the Sermon on the Mount.

We will never have harmony in the home, the Church, or the world until we tune our living with the Great Organ of God's Love.
