

Pastor Maps War On Discrimination

MADISON, Wis. (UP). A young Madison Unitarian minister who adopted "colored" status six weeks ago to carry on his fight against racial discrimination outlined the strategy for a "Moral revolution" against prejudice.

Rev. Kenneth L. Patton said the first step is to "confess" publicly that one believes "race ideas are myths and color makes no one better or worse than any other person." The next to "seek friends among those of other colors and backgrounds."

ECHOES FROM CHRIST TEMPLE

Richard McWilliams

The pastor's message Sunday morning, "Happy Am I" stirred the entire congregation.

This Sunday, November 2, Rev. Lacy will occupy Christ Temple's pulpit. The pastor and some of the members will leave Saturday afternoon to be in service with Christ Temple Church, 702 Oakland Avenue, Kansas City, Kansas. Rev. T. T. McWilliams, Sr., is pastor.

Deacon A. E. Simms says "Don't forget November 9th is Victory Rally Day at Christ Temple Church."

Unusual Sentence Imposed

CHICAGO. (ANP). A series of special lectures on racial understanding was part of the sentence imposed on 90 hoodlums who violently protested the entrance of Negro families into the Fernwood Housing project here Aug. 14-18. Judge Joseph J. Drucker of Boy's court will check attendance at the lectures before the scheduled hearings on disorderly conduct in his court next March 4.

The decision to arrange the lectures by prominent men was reached in a conference between the judge and eight defense attorneys, together with Ralph Metcalfe, a member of the civil rights committee and the Mayor's Commission on Human relations.

Meanwhile, the Fernwood-Bellevue Civic association adopted a resolution condemning the Chicago Housing authority and the Mayor's Commission as "provoking violence and destroying understanding between the races by the intermingling of races within housing projects."

The resolution calls for the resignations of Edwin R. Embree, chairman, and Thomas H. Wright, executive director of the commission. It asks for a new commission to be composed of 12 white persons and 12 Negroes "in whom all the people of the city have confidence," and who are not connected with politics.

ATLANTA. (ANP). The Southern Regional council here has announced that 220 Negro policemen are now employed in 41 southern cities.
