

Taliaferro Stars

With George (the Great) Taliaferro leading the touchdown parade with a "double" for Indiana, as they walloped Pitt, Paul Patterson of Illinois and Bob Mann of Michigan with "singles" and Emlen Tunnell still going great at Iowa, sepia stars sparkled brightly again on the major college football fronts.

One Pittsburgh writer said that Taliaferro was a "one-man" show. "He put on a one-man display of passing and running that was slightly out of this world. Taliaferro doesn't have to bow to any of them," the daily scribe declared.

At Columbus it was Tunnell's wide sweeps that kept Iowa in the game and helped them tie Ohio State, 13-13. Banks, a guard also saw service for the Hawkeyes.

Groomes also scored a touchdown for Indiana against Pitt.

For Michigan, terminal Bob Bann raced 49 yards, the longest run of the day, to score.

Gene Derricotte also went into action as mighty Michigan beat Northwestern, 49-21.

Paul Patterson was one of the backs who helped Illinois rout Minnesota, 40-13, with Glen Pullers, a back also getting into the game for the Illini.

The Game of the Week: Virginia State's unbeaten Trojans and Hampton's unbeaten Pirates. Hampton will leave the game on the short end of a high scoring count.

Gospel Singers Here

PROF. AND MRS. TINDLEY

Professor and Mrs. Tindley are recognized by many authorities as the greatest gospel singers in America today. They are godly, spirit-filled Christians whose ministry in song has blessed thousands.

Son of the late Dr. Charles A. Tindley, the world renowned Methodist pastor and song writer, Professor Tindley is a well-trained worker. He is a graduate of Temple University and has studied voice under the celebrated Eugene D'Avengnue. He is a tenor. Mrs. Hazel P. Tindley, a coloratura soprano, is a graduate of the Pittsburgh Musical Institute of the University of Pittsburgh.

But more than family or training, they radiate sound Christian qualities and sincerity. Professor Tindley interprets his father's beloved hymns as only he can do and thrills an audience with his dramatic presentation. The Tindleys have had the pleasure of serving with some of the outstanding men in the field of evangelism, including Dr. Robert G. Lee, Dr. Bob Jones, Sr., Dr. H. A. Ironside, Dr. Oswald J. Smith, and others.

president of the Brooklyn Dodgers, will be featured in a new movie to be released soon, according to an announcement by Producers Releasing corporation which will make the film. Rickey signed up for a part last week.

Dark Merit

By Kathrynne Favors

The editor of "Dark Merit" would like to take this opportunity to congratulate "The Voice" on its first anniversary. I feel that "The Voice" is one of the greatest things that has happened to the city of Lincoln for a long time. From many points of view the city of Lincoln is forgetting its complacency and is really developing into a cosmopolitan city.

Again this week, I wish for you to enjoy with me some poems written by Negroes.

IT'S ALL THROUGH LIFE.

A day of joy, a week of pain,
A sunny day, a week of rain;
A day of peace, a year of strife;

But cling to Him, it's all through life.
An hour of joy, a day of fears,
An hour of smiles, a day of tears;
An hour of gain, a day of strife.
Press on, press on, it's all through life.
—Waverley Turner Carmichael

TO AMERICA.

How would you have us—as we are
Or sinking 'neath the load we bear?
Our eyes fixed forward on a star?
Or gazing empty at despair?

Rising or falling? Men or things?
With dragging pace, or footsteps fleet?
Strong, willing sinews in your wings?
Or tightening chains about your feet?
—James Weldon Johnson

THE MULATTO TO HIS CRITICS.

Ashamed of my race?
And of what race am I?
I am many in one.
Through my veins there flows the blood
Of Red Man, Black Man, Briton, Celt and
Scot,
In warring clash and tumultuous riot.

I welcome all.
But love the blood of a kindly race
That swarths my skin, crinkles my hair,
And puts sweet music into my soul.
—Joseph S. Cotter, Jr.

I, TOO, SING AMERICA

I am the darker brother.
They send me to eat in the kitchen
When company comes,
But I laugh,
And eat well,
And grow strong.

Tomorrow
I'll sit at the table
When company comes.
Nobody'll dare
Say to me,
"Eat in the kitchen,"
Then,
Besides,
They'll see how beautiful I am
And be ashamed—
I, too, sing America.
—Langston Hughes
