of American corporations abroad." Scheduled as the principal speaker before the national convention of the Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity, Wallace wired from Chicago that he was forced to cancel the engagement due to a cold contracted while "shoveling out of a snowstorm in New York," and a missed plane connection. Mayor Lee Price delivered a welcoming address to the fraternal convention delegates. Dr. Clark Foreman, Atlanta, Ga., president of the Southern Conference of Human Welfare, who had come to Tulsa from Washington to be with Wallace—with whom he was associated for more than 10 years during the New Deal regime—read the text of Wallace's speech to the audience. He also advocated the abolishment of the "Jim Crow" law in southern states and stated "I come to you as a liberal fellow American. I come as one who served in the New Deal administrations which did more than any administration since the time of Abraham Lincoln to improve the living conditions of the Negro people." Continuing, Wallace's speech stated: "Jim Crow in America has got to go." The 1948 Convention will be held in Atlantic City, N. J. A small girl owned a canary, and when it died she insisted on a proper funeral. Her father therefore dug a hole in the garden and, comfortably packed in a cigar box, Timmy's body was reverently interred. Then, as Mary returned up the garden path, hand in hand with her father, she said, "Daddy, wouldn't you like to see St. Peter's face when he thinks he's got a box of cigars and finds it's only Timmy?"

Teen Age Chatter

By Dorothy Green

So, we start a new year of teen-age chatter and I do hope it will be much better than that of 1947.

I was unable to get all of my teen-age chatter in last week's paper so there is some of this week's chatter you have heard but please look over it.

Jimmy Myeres, Robert "Bobby Owens," Daniel Yancy were the guest of Joyce Williams, Freddie Powell, Robbie Powell during the holidays.

Girl of the Month

This week I will feature Miss Robbie Powell.

Robbie is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. R. H. Powell of 526 No. 22nd Street. She is a graduate of Lincoln High School and is now attending the University of Nebraska in teacher's college, majoring in history.

Something about her tastes are; she is just nuts about Miss Powell. Omaha, Nebraska. Her pet peeve is boys who try to be so much and aren't anything. Robbie celebrated her 18th birthday, December 23.

Amateur Disc Jockey

Miss Betty Jean Wilson was the 18th amateur disc jockey on the Gloom Buster program that comes over station KOLN every day at 3:45. She was heard on Wednesday afternoon. One record she played was: Looking for My Man by Helen Wilson. I'm sure you all remember Helen Wilson or most of you do anyway. She is Betty's sister and the recording was really in the groove. Other selections were: I'm in the Mood for Love by Billy Eckstein, Since I Fell for You, by Dina Washington and Nellie Letcher's recording.

I think Betty would make a very good disc jockey, because she has a fine taste for disc. Don't you?

With the coming of the new year brought a couple of parties they were given at the Pla-House one was on the 31st. Guests attending this were Joyce Williams, Ralph Wilson, Vern Wilson, Betty Bowman, Charles Rogers, Tony Smith, Johnnie Duncan, Nellie Wilson, Betty Wilson, Richard Holcomb, Hazel Wilson, Albert Bowen.

The other party was on the 1st. The same couples attended this party with the addition of Ruby Harper, Johnnie Vaughn, Jeanne Malone, Ralph Wilson. Before attending this party the group went to the theater.

To celebrate the coming of the New Year Mitz Woods, Billy Mosby, Howard Rean, Eugene Graham journeyed to Omaha, Nebraska. Fletcher Bell joined them on New Year's day.

Lois Hatcher was honored with a birthday party Sunday night given by her mother. Many guests were present and everyone had a nice time.

Mr. George Randol was welcomed by the Y-teen Club of Lincoln High School Monday evening. He sang several numbers, which the girls enjoyed very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johnson and daughter Patricia left Wednesday night to spend a month with relatives and friends in Hope, Ark.

Freddie Powell and Billy Mosby went to the Nebraska Theater Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Edwards entertained the following at dinner on Christmas day: Mrs. Dovie Boyd, Mr. Joe Burden, Mrs. Rozena Dean, Mr. Butler Ivory and his daughter.

Mrs. Edwards who is enrolled in the School of Cosmology in Omaha remained in the city until Sunday, January 4.

Correction—Miss Barbara Kelley will be graduated from the School of Music at Langston, Okla., January, 1948, instead of June as previously reported.

WEDDING PLANS.

Announcement was received of the engagement and approaching marriage of Rose Marie Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson of Potosie, Mo., to Daniel Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Smith, Hastings, Neb. The wedding will be an event of early summer.

Delores Bowen spent a most fascinating trip in Denver, Colo.

Susie May White Hall was in Omaha to greet the New Year in.

Mary and James Bass spent a delightful week in Kansas City.

George Alexandra has returned to Lincoln from Hannibal, Mo. We are very glad to see him back.

The Teen-age of the Urban League will have a skirt and sweater bobby-sox party January 10. All Teen-agers should attend, because it will be a real one. Bye now, DOROTHY.

One cannot change yesterday—that's clear, Or begin tomorrow until it's here. So all that's left for you and for me, Is to make today as sweet as can be!

Sunday School Lesson

Rev. R. E. Handy.
Subject: "What We Know About God."

Scripture Text: Isa. 40:28-31, John 14:8-14.

Golden Text: "But without faith it is impossible to please Him; for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him." Heb. 11:6.

Application: It is important that we know about God, but extremely important that we know God, for "this life eternal, that they might know thee, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent." John 17:3.

Let us examine what Isaiah knew about God. He says that God is the creator of the universe. There is no limit in time or space to His creative work. God is everlasting, never fainting, never weary. He shares his power to the faint, and gives the wearyrest. He feeds the hungry, clothes the naked, and is so tender hearted that He marks the spot where the sparrow falls.

What do we know about God? Look at Jesus Christ.

No man has seen God at any time; but His begotten Son which is in the bosom of the Father, "he hath declared him," not only in words, but in deeds and character. "He went about doing good, healing the sick, raising up the dead, casting out devils. He said, "Those that have seen me, have seen the Father." Therefore God is not an impersonal force, but concerned and eager to help us in our needs. Paul in Acts 17:22-31 adds more to our knowledge. "God dwelleth not in temples made with hands, neither is worshipped with men's hands," He giveth to all life and breath, He hath made . . . all nations, He now commandeth all men, everywhere, to repent." "He hath appointed a day in which He will judge the world, and His Son Jesus Christ will be the judge.

These truths, and many others, are what we know about God. All of us are destined to meet Him. At that meeting grace will be extended to us or judgment.

It depends upon us, individually as to which condition will prevail.
