Cheese Vegetable Timbales.
 2 tablespoons butter
 1/4 cup finely diced onion
 1/2 cup fine bread crumbs
 1 1/2 cups milk
 1 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon pepper
 1 cup grated American cheese
 1 1/2 cups drained, cooked peas
 2 tablespoons minced parsley
 4 eggs, slightly beaten

Melt butter, add onion and cook over low heat about 5 minutes, stirring occasionally. Add bread crumbs and milk and cook 5 minutes, while stirring. Stir in salt, pepper and cheese. Add peas, parsley and eggs; stir to blend. Pour into 6 greased custard cups. Bake in moderate oven, 325 degrees, for 45 minutes, or until a clean knife inserted in the center comes out clean. Serve with Creole sauce. Serves six.

Creole Sauce.
 2 tablespoons butter
 1/2 cup sliced onions
 1/2 cup diced, green pepper
 1 No. 2 can tomatoes (2 cups)
 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
 Dash cayenne
 Dash powdered cloves
 1 teaspoon sugar
 4 tablespoons flour
 1/4 cup cold water

Cook onion and green pepper in butter, over low heat until tender, about 10 minutes. Add tomatoes and seasonings and simmer covered, about 15 minutes. Blend flour and water; stir into sauce. Cook until smooth and thickened, stirring constantly. Serve over timbales. Makes 1 3/4 cups sauce.

Fluffiness of Woolen Blankets Gives Warmth.

When we launder our woolen blankets, the secret in keeping them warm is in keeping them fluffy. It's the nap, with many tiny cells resulting, that insulates.

Hot hard water, rubbing, and soaps containing much alkali are the things to avoid when you launder blankets. They make the fibers interlock, shrink and harden.

Use mild soap or detergent and lots of lukewarm water and avoid rubbing. In a washer, three minutes' gentle action is sufficient. It's a good idea to have a second tub of suds ready. Wash blankets quickly but never soak them. A soft brush may be used on the binding. Thorough rinsing is important but never wring or allow undue pressure to flatten the nap. Hang the blanket away from the heat or extreme cold and out of the sun.

Greetings From Los Angeles

By Esther White Green.

Miss me for two weeks? Because of business I was called out of the city.

St. 1/c G. H. Jones of the Navy arriving from Seattle, Washington, was the guest of Miss Rose-land Smith.

Mrs. White, a member of the Booster club had as her guest Mrs. Winona Baker and Mrs. Esther Green.

Those on the convalescent list are, Mrs. Dorothy Carter Simms and Mrs. Grace Smith.

This week the spotlight jumps up the coast to San Francisco, to shine on Edward Hammond. Mr. Hammond is doing fine with his own "Combo."

Four States Plan to Deny Vote to Negroes

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (ANP). Four southern states are seeking copies of Alabama's Boswell amendment, added to the state constitution 14 months ago to minimize voting of Negroes, the amendment's author revealed this week.

State Rep. E. C. Boswell said Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Texas want copies of the law as a possible for them to follow.

His amendment requires prospective voters to be able to "understand and explain" any part of the U. S. constitution to the satisfaction of county registration boards. It also repealed a constitutional provision that any person with $300 worth of taxable property could vote whether they could read or write.

Man is a puny fellow at best, and the only way he can keep going is by reminding himself constantly of his successes and forgetting his failures. This simple and ancient truth, which was lost sight of for a while, was rediscovered in the twentieth century by people like Coue, who called it the new psychology and retailed it at half a guinea a lesson.

Social Briefs

By Basilia Bell

The home of Rev. and Mrs. Melvin L. Shakespeare was the scene of the beautiful wedding of Miss Rosie Lee Marshall and Rudolph Parsons Saturday evening, January 31 at 7 o'clock.

At 8:30 p. m. the home was graced with the presence of the Rev. and Mrs. John Favors who had, earlier in the day, received their master of arts degree, conferred upon them from the University of Nebraska. After refreshments the host and hostess and their guests enjoyed taking pictures, a hobby of Rev. Mr. Shakespeare.

The caps and gowns, a symbol of achievement, were a feature of the picture taking.

Mr. H. V. McDaniels passed through the city Friday night enroute to Denver where he has bought his home.

Mr. McDaniels held the position as U. S. O. director here and he has been in charge of the Glen-arm U. S. O. in Denver since leaving Salina, Kansas.

Mrs. William Beach returned Tuesday from a week's visit in Casper, Wyoming with her husband, who is employed with the Burlington Dining car department. Mr. and Mrs. Beach were honored with a buffet luncheon given by their host, Mr. Clifford Moore. Forty guests were present.

Mrs. Beach worshiped on Sunday at the A. M. E. church of which Rev. Mr. Bell is pastor.

Mr. E. Son Bizer was called to Kansas City, Mo., for the accidental death of his brother in a car wreck. Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Jones were week-end guests of Mrs. Jones' sister Mrs. Fred Nevels. Mrs. Jones was formerly Mary Bell Witt of St. Louis.

Mrs. Fred Nevels, Jr. had a few friends in Sunday evening honoring her sister.

Mrs. Bessie Gill was the recipient of some lovely gifts at a surprise birthday dinner given by her daughter at her home Tuesday evening. Her guests were: Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Tarpley, Mr. James Tarpley, Mrs. Opal Hatch, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bell, Jr. and Sr.

Mrs. Anita Griffin, the mother of Mrs. Margaret Brown, attended the graduation exercise of her daughter. Mrs. Griffin teaches the 5th and 6th grades in St. Joseph, Missouri.

Mrs. Louise Moore was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Molden during the past week. She brought her aunt, Mrs. Carrie Smith to Lincoln to undergo an operation on her eyes. They are from Cheyenne, Wyoming.

Nolan Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Davis won the Golden Gloves in Fremont recently after three successful bouts. He represented the Lincoln Urban League Boxing Club.

His next bout is scheduled to be in Omaha, Nebraska, on February 13.

Urban League Activities

The Urban League wish to express their thanks for the fine cooperation from many sources which contributed tremendously to the success of their annual meeting dinner. We are especially grateful to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Denton who prepared the meal, also to Mrs. Dorothy Lewis and Mrs. Florence Gibbons who supervised the charming array of hostesses. This to us is another example of how cooperation gets results.

The Urban League is happy to announce they feel they have some worthy opportunities for veterans.

Do you have mechanical ability? Then you should be interested in a course of auto mechanics or, it may be, enrollment in a Diesel school.

We would be glad to talk to any veteran about these or other educational or training opportunities. Remember under the veteran's Administration you can learn a trade or get an education and be paid while learning.

We are again reminding the general public of the fun nights the 2nd and 4th Fridays of each month. Everybody is welcome.

The Women's Guild in their last meeting formulated several plans that will be of community interest. Watch this group when they get in action. Mrs. Pansy Beard is president of the group and states she would like to have all women interested in community affairs join the organization.

The party at the Urban League on Saturday, January 31 was a success. Two small students from the Flavia Waters Champe dancing school gave two tap numbers. The group then spent the evening in playing games.

Mr. Clyde Malone, Executive Secretary of the Urban League, wishes to take this opportunity to publicly express his gratitude for the beautiful brief case pre-
