World Day of Prayer Observed

About two hundred business women representing the various evening church groups met at the First Christian church, Friday evening for observance of the World Day of Prayer. Mrs. Ethel Leopold, chairman of the committee, presided at the meeting. Those participating in the program were Mrs. F. H. Armstrong, leader; Olga Andeas, Beatrice White, Alice Wassung, Mrs. W. B. Davis as the four voices; Beverly Holcomb, Jeanette Venegar and Winifred Winston as the three voices.

The committee in charge of the meeting was Mrs. Ethel Leopold, chairman; Mrs. W. B. Davis, Anne Longman, Bess Martz, Janette Mathieson, Ruth Jacobson, Mrs. Dorothy Lewis, Carrie Collins, and Janet McLellan each being a representative from the various church groups.

This group has been getting together once a year for this occasion since 1940. The World Day of Prayer has been an annual event for these groups for the past five years.

Teen Age Chatter

By Dorothy Green

Greeting from Station T. A. C. You are tuned in on the latest news of the teen agers in Lincoln and the near by towns.

Hot off the press is the question: Who is Phillis Holcomb going with? Who knows Pete?????

At Whittier Jr. High there are a lot of things of interest happening, among them are the many New Home Room officers that have been selected. In H. R. 203 Elois "Lopy" Finley was elected president. In H. R. 312 Tommie Gardner was elected president. Also in the same H. R. Ionna Adams is secretary. In H. R. 308 James Bass was elected boys' delegate.

She: "You remind me of the ocean."

He: "Wild, romantic and restless?"

She: "No, you just make me sick." (Joke Son).

Flash—

More news from Whittier: Bettie Rose Huston is the new secretary of the Girl Civic League.

Pick up on this little item of interest: Misses Joyce Williams and Freddie Powell have been invited to attend a formal banquet in Omaha, Neb. tonight.

Real gone hey!!!!

Donavan Gettus has recently returned to school after being in the hospital.

More Corn—

"I got a real kick out of kissing Susie last night."

"Anymore than usual."

"Yea, the old man caught me."

Now we turn to sports: At Whittier Jr. High H. R.'s 305 and 310 played basketball for the championship. 310 won with the score 11 to 10. Buddy Bradford is in 305 and Skeezix King and Clifford are in 310.

(Orchids to 310)

The Independents have been playing some good Basketball of late. Keep up the good work, boys.

Another Flash—

Billy Rutherford has left Lincoln to go to Washington. Let's give three cheers or should I say Three Tears Loretta?

Whieland Tarpley, boxing in the Golden Glove bouts in Omaha Feb. 13-14 won one bout and lost one. I think he did some pretty fine boxing.

This is Station T. A. C. signing off. Till next week.

Bye now,
DOTTY.

Competition for industrial contracts is seen at pre-war normal.

Negro Reporters On Truman Trip

WASHINGTON. (AP). Twenty-eight reporters, radio and camera men will accompany President Truman on his Caribbean trip next week.

The white house list made public Saturday includes the names of P. Bernard Young, jr., of the Journal and Guide of Norfolk, Va., and Llewellyn A. Coles, representing the Negro Newspaper Publishers association, of Columbus, O.

It will be the first time that Negro reporters have covered a presidential trip of this nature.

CHILD SOCIETY

By Phyllis Bradford

Phyllis Bradford was honored by playing the queen in the cast of the Golden Goose.

Betty Lou Bradley was also in the play as Lady in Waiting.

Others that also took part who live in the neighborhood were Lillian Bell and Robert Moody.

Alliance News

Mrs. Florence Jackson has been confined to her home for the past two months due to illness.

Sharon Jackson has been ill for the past week but is much improved.

Mr. Arthur Copens of Montgomery City, Mo., spent a few days at the home of his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. V. Jackson.

Mrs. Helen M. Rose celebrated her birthday January 26.

Mrs. McClain of Crawford, Neb., passed away January 29th. Several friends from Alliance attended the funeral.

James Motley, heavy weight champion in the Nebraska Golden Glove boxing contest now has the chance to appear on Chicago, Ill., after winning in the championship bout in Omaha the 13th and 14th.

Mr. Ben Nelson accompanied James Motley on his trip to Omaha. Enroute they stopped in Lincoln to see Mr. Nelson's cousin, Mrs. John Johnson.

Minister Appointed Presbyterian Moderator

CHICAGO. (ANP). Dr. Augustus Eugene Bennett, pastor of Grace Presbyterian church, was elected moderator of the Presbytery of Chicago last week—the first Negro minister to be appointed to that post in all the denomination's history. The Chicago presbytery is composed of 122 churches.

There are only two Negro Presbyterian churches in Chicago—Grace and Hope Presbyterian churches.

Governor Issues Proclamation

Governor Val Peterson signed the "Negro History Week" Proclamation designating February 8-15 as the week for "Special Programs" commemorating Negro History. Governor Peterson was ill and confined to his home, thus missed the occasion. His Secretary presented the proclamation to Mr. Charles Goolsby.

The Proclamation read as follows:

STATE OF NEBRASKA
Executive Office
LINCOLN
PROCLAMATION

"National Negro History Week was originated to call attention to the progress made by the race since its emancipation and to its contributions to the American way of life. Communities throughout most of the United States will observe Negro History Week, February 8 to February 15, with special programs.

It is fitting that Nebraska join with her sister states in paying tribute to the Progress being made by the American Negro.

I, Val Peterson, Governor of the State of Nebraska, do hereby proclaim the week, February 8 to February 15, as Negro History Week in Nebraska and urge that all schools and organizations in the state participate in the observance of this program.

STATE SEAL
By the Governor:
Frank Marsh
Secretary of State.

Done at the Capitol in the City of Lincoln this tenth day of February, in the year of our Lord, Nineteen hundred forty-eight"

my telephone means money in the bank

Folks have told us that they actually put into a bank the money a telephone call saves them. For example, a telephone call will save gasoline or bus fare for an errand or shopping trip—and sometimes the greater cost of a business trip. You yourself know a lot of little ways you save money by telephoning—and if you'd stop to add up the amounts you save, you'd find you're putting away a tidy little sum.
