Troop 60 will receive instructions in First Aid at their regular meeting Feb. 23.

C. W. Malone, committeeman will be in charge of the instructions. All boys 12 or above are eligible to join. The Troop is seeking new members, according to a statement issued by Scoutmaster Joseph W. Adams.

White Ga. Student Joins Negro Church

MACON, Ga.—Jack Singletary, 25-year-old white divinity student and his wife were accepted into membership in the Tremont Temple Baptist church here last week.

Singletary declared that he and his wife "try to do whatever we do in the best interests of God."

Social Briefs

By Basilia Bell

Mrs. Eugenia Simms Brown spoke for the Inter-racial Women's Society of Elm Park Methodist Church. Mrs. Brown gave a very interesting talk on the Lincoln Urban League.

Mrs. Charlotte Williams Jackson had a birthday party for her husband on Saturday evening. Games were played and refreshments served. Those winning prizes for the unusual quiz were: Mrs. Constance Winston, Mrs. Eugenia Brown and Howard Molden.

Winifred "Peaches" Winston, soprano, won the first prize in the audition last Friday night at the Capitol Theater and received the Capital Theater and received test.

Mrs. Hobert Botts has returned home after a two-week stay with her mother at White Cloud, Kans. Mrs. Botts' mother has been ill for some time.

Miss Virginia Davis was a dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nevels, jr.

All ladies taking part in the choral reading are asked to meet at the Y. W. C. A. in the Stewart Room, February 25 at 2 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Davis had as a week end guest her niece

Mrs. Della Maye Simpson of Omaha. Mrs. Simpson has now joined her husband, 1st Sgt. Maurice Simpson in Baltimore, Maryland where they will reside until June when they will sail for Japan for occupational duty.

Young people today are alike in too many disrespects.

Woman was made before mirrors, and has been before them ever since.
