The Teen Timers Club of the Lincoln Urban League had a Date Party Saturday night. The program committee planned a very enjoyable floor show with Ruby Harper as chairman.

The Lincoln High School again had the great pleasure of having Mr. George Randol present to them a very nice assembly which was enjoyed by all.

Correction: In last week's paper there was an article about Loly which was a mis-print and should have read Lopy.

Orchids to the teen agers who had enough talent to get in Joy Night. They were The Girls Octet directed by Mrs. Eugenia Brown and the Tap Trio consisting of Loretta McWilliams, Elbert Starkes, and Lois Hatcher. Joy Night will be presented at Lincoln High School the middle of April.

We are glad to see Ronald Edmonds back in our fair city again. He is here for a short visit.

Bob Hutchinson has attracted several of our teen age girls so you boys better watch out.

Quite a few university students attended the Student Union's candlelight Dry Night Club March 12th. Johnny Cox's ensemble was real mellow as students guzzled black champagne (coke). There were too many to list here, but everyone seemed to be having a fine time.

Well, I guess I will sign off for now.
Bye now, Dotty.

What's Doing In Alliance, Nebraska

By Bea Motley

Mrs. Ben Nelson is visiting friends and relatives in Omaha this week.

A birthday party was given in honor of Mr. M. C. Woodlee at his residence March 5th. The evening was spent playing games after which refreshments were served. Everyone enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

James Motley accompanied Don Underwood and Bol Weston to Sterling, Nebraska to attend the boxing bouts there.

Mr. Edward McClain is visiting his wife and son Robert Warren in Crawford, Nebraska.

Mrs. M. E. Evans was confined to her home a few days with a finger infection.

The Alliance High School a cappella choir and the music department are presenting their first Spring concert at the Municipal Auditorium on Sunday. The concert is open to the public.

Sunday School Lesson

By Rev. R. E. Handy

Subject: "The Kingdom of God."
Lesson test: Luke 4:16-20, Mark 4:26-29, Romans 14-17.

Memory verse: "Thy Kingdom Come, Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven." Matt. 6:10.

—Application for Today—

Today we see the various kingdoms of the earth, breaking up and new kingdoms being formed and confederations established. From history we learn that these new pacts are doomed to die aborning. Only one kingdom has and will endure the storms of time—and that kingdom is the Kingdom of God.

God's kingdom is that realm in which He rules over all beings who voluntarily place themselves under His will. To understand this lesson fully we need to read the text and then pray for Divine guidance. Earthly kingdoms are visible kingdoms. We see the King, the Parliament, the trappings. God's kingdom "cometh not with observation. Neither shall they say Lo here, Lo there; for behold the Kingdom of God is within you."

So God is assembling His subjects from those men and women who open their hearts and welcome His Holy Spirit to dwell therein, where His love will take root and grow. Mark compares it to a seed placed in the ground which sprouts and grows. The growth comes on silently and gradually. "First the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear." While the Kingdom is not now "by observation," ultimately it will come with outward show.

The most important part of a kingdom is the King. When Jesus comes again "in the clouds, and every eye shall see Him," then the kingdom shall be manifest. Now let us glance at the conclusion of the whole matter: "For the Kingdom of God is not meat and drink;

Letters to the Editors

Dear Editors:

With congratulations to "The Voice" which I consider one of the greatest little newspapers printed in our capital city of Nebraska. I cannot say how much I enjoy reading The Voice. I do not believe I ever read one more instructive and heartily thank you for the opportunity to occupy a short space to fill in with a few lines which I think is very important at this time.

I wish to say just a few words to the Christians or church people and best citizens who do not seem to be interested in politics and fail to prepare themselves for voting by failing to register. It is the duty of every good American citizen. We must not forget that the right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude. Some church people say they do not believe in politics. I but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Ghost."

In this evil world, God's subjects need an anchor, a hope for better things. We long for peace and joy and contentment. The Saviour of the world whose promises never fail, has promised these and He has promised that we can see and take part in His coronation, when His kingdom is consummated.

must say to them that they have a responsibility in helping to run this government. They must face the responsibility or the wicked part of the people will go forward to drift at the whims of their minds in the future as they have in the past, and the outcome will be an evil lesson to our future generation. I shall urge every Christian to take an active part in making this a government which will be of benefit to all its citizens. We must remember it is the duty of every good citizen to take an active part in the politics of this country as politics is one of the strongest weapons to clear the path to freedom of speech and the right to worship God according to the dictates of ones own conscience. It gives us the power and liberty to obey the laws of God.
