Sunday School Lesson

By Rev. R. E. Handy.

Subject: "A Prophet Among the Exiles."
Scripture Text: Ezek. 1:1-3; 3:11, 17-21; 4:1-3.
Golden Text: "Son of man, I have thee a watchman unto the house of Israel." Ezek. 3:17.

—Application of the Lesson—

God in His word has stated that all sin shall be punished. In today's lesson, we find Israel in the captivity of Babylon. God had allowed that because of their falling away from true worship. Among the captives was one Ezekiel, whom God was to use as a symbol of the national sin that caused them to become exiles.

They needed to know that they were there justly. And they needed to know that if they would repent and exercise faith, they would be restored as a nation, and that their enemies would be punished. The word of the Lord came expressly to Ezekiel, but before he could give that message he had to be purified and be given the message of God, by God. This is true of every teacher and preacher. Too many of us are "running without tidings" given of God. Too many have not been touched by a "live coal" from the altar. The result is that the Gospel message falling from some lips, lacks force and power.

"Ezekiel was given the "roll" (the Word of God) and told to "eat it up" that is, commit it to memory. It would be sweet in his mouth, (i.e. God's promises of future happiness would be pleasant listening) but his belly would "be bitter," (i.e. he would like to escape his just punishment).

No teacher or preacher is qualified to lead sinners to Christ who does not constantly "eat" the word of God. I have heard men say, "Get into the pulpit, open your mouth and God will fill it." But I read in Timothy "Study to show thyself approved... a workman that need not be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of Truth." And again, "Pray always, without ceasing, and watch..."

We, too, are exiles, far from our heavenly home. Go into thy secret closet and pray for a "live coal." God will give you a message for a dying world and souls will be given you for your hire.

QUINN CHAPEL

Easter Sunday was a great day at Quinn Chapel. The breakfast sponsored by the Wee Moderns was well attended and quite successful. At 10:00 a. m. the Junior Department of the Sunday School rendered a very excellent program of Easter songs and recitations under the direction of Miss Frances Lewis, Assistant Sup't. Rev. R. E. Handy conducted a brief period on "The Meaning of Easter." At the 11:00 services, fine music was the order of the day. Ten infants and children received the sacrament of Baptism. The Choir, under the direction of Charles Goolsby today, did a fine job on the anthems "All Hail" (Gates) and "Nature's Anthem of Praise" (Sullivan). Mrs. Mary Sampson's contralto voice accompanied by Mrs. Clyde Malone enthralled the congregation in her rendition of "Into the Woods" (Nevin) as did Mrs. Odessa Johnson, Mrs. Sampson and Mr. Goolsby in the trio "The Fruits and Flowers" (Gates). Miss Barbra Kelley, accompanied by her mother, played beautifully on her violin the Bach-Gounod Meditation on Prelude No. 1. The scenery decorating the choir was painted by Mr. Goolsby.

COMPARE STASSEN

with All Other Republican Candidates!

Roscoe Drummond in LIFE magazine says:
"Stassen's total experience excels that of any of his opponents."

1. STASSEN is the ONLY candidate with a midwestern farm background. He appreciates the importance of the farmer to the nation. He says to have prosperity in the nation as a whole we must have prosperity on the farm!
2. STASSEN has had important military experience. For two years he was aide to Admiral Halsey in the Pacific.
3. STASSEN can keep peace between labor and industry. In Minnesota he cut strikes 70%!
4. STASSEN is an administrator. In Minnesota he slashed debt 30%, cut expenses 12%, reduced farm and home property taxes 45%!
5. STASSEN is a leader. Three times governor of Minn. Twice head of U. S. Conference of Governors.
6. STASSEN CAN WIN! National polls say that of all candidates, Stassen stands highest with independent voters. STASSEN can return good government to the U.S.
