one-half-inch long and brown slightly in bacon fat. Add mushrooms, Worcestershire sauce and salt. Cook together for about five minutes.

Arrange macaroni, tuna fish and mushroom mixture in layers in casserole. Pour mushroom soup over mixture. Cover and bake in moderate, 350 degree oven for about 30 minutes. Arrange three crisp bacon slices on top a few minutes before removing from oven.

An old glove finger slipped over the end of a curtain rod when hanging freshly ironed curtains will prevent snagging.

To keep cheese moist, spread the cut side with a very thin coating of butter or margarine.

Don't ever put meat into the refrigerator uncovered. It will dry out and become tasteless, of no use to you. Keep it in covered dish and use it in hash or stew or a casserole dish for another meal.

Don't throw away your stale bread. Put it somewhere where it can dry out thoroughly and then use a rolling pin to reduce it to crumbs for coating fried foods and for stuffing meats.
