Sunday School Lesson

By Rev. R. E. Handy.
Subject: Nehemiah Rebuilds Jerusalem.
Scripture Text: Neh. 4:1-6, 13, 14, 21-23, 6:15, 16.
Golden Text: "So built we the wall; . . . for the people had a mind to work" Neh. 4:6.

—The Application for Today—
We have learned in previous lessons this quarter that Zerubbabel and Ezra were commissioned to build the Temple at Jerusalem. Today Nehemiah is appointed governor to rebuild Jerusalem's walls. To that end a feeling of security is necessary to peace of mind.

Just as soon as the work started, the enemies of Judah began to hinder the work, but Nehemiah exhorted the people to have real faith in God. "Be not afraid," he said, "remember the Lord, which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons and your daughters and your homes."

"Remember the Lord" would be a splendid motto for Christians today. We are prone to look upon difficulties and enemies as things to hinder God's will in our lives, instead of viewing them as events to make us "Remember the Lord" as our great defender.

Let us lose ourselves in our work and say like Nehemiah, "I am doing a great work and can not come down." The great trouble with out church is that we are too easily discouraged. If God could see real zeal in his people, a revival would break forth that Satan could not cope with.

"A charge to keep I have
A God to glorify,
A Never dying soul to save
And fit it for the sky.
To serve the present day
My calling to fulfill.
Oh may it all my powers engage
To do my Master's will."
—C. Wesley.

Rev. 2:17. This was a communion service.
The Missionaries met at the home of Mrs. Estelle Davis, 820 C st., Monday night, April 5. Visitors included Mr. Junior Burks, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Burks and Mr. Earl White from Ohio.

Out of Town News

Alliance

By Bea Motley

Mr. Robert Bailey of Edgemont, South Dakota was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Woodlee, while on a short visit enroute to him home.

Harry Harden of Sidney, Nebraska was a visitor in the city over the week end.

Mrs. E. McClain and Mrs. H. Ruggs of Crawford, Nebraska were week end guests of Mr. E. McClain.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills Lear with Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Ealy and sons Billy and Robert drove to Hay Springs Sunday. They returned via Chadron.

Miss Stella Woodlee and Beatrice Motley attended the District Musical Contest at Scottsbluff Friday.

The St. Louis Sinfonietta gave the last community concert to be held in Alliance this season. The Sinfonietta featured Gertrude Hopkins at the harp and was under the direction of Paul Schreiber.

It seems that everybody has fishing fever. Some of the many persons participating in the sport in near-by ponds, lakes, and dams, were David Batt, Jessie Ewing, Maxie Woodlee, jr., James Motley, and Mr. and Mrs. William Young.

Mr. and Mrs. William Graham of Hemingford, Nebraska were seen in the city during the week end.

Maxie Woodlee, jr., James Motley and Jessie Ewing motored to Scottsbluff during the week.

Wallace Against Draft and UMT

WASHINGTON. (ANP). Mr. Wallace offered a three point program which he said would make it easy for the services to build up authorized strength through voluntary enlistments:

1. All forms of discrimination in the armed services, which keep out thousands of Negro recruits, should be abolished.
2. Improve relations between officers and enlisted men, and increase the pay and conditions of the enlisted men.
3. Withdraw American troops from intervention in Greece, China and other places. Stop war propaganda, and resume a peaceful co-operative foreign policy.

Robinson's Book Fresh off Press

JACKIE ROBINSON, received a thunderous hand as did ROY CAMPANELLA before the largest crowd in Yankee (exhibition game) history on Sunday, April 18, in the park that Babe Ruth is credited with building due to his national popularity. Robinson's book, "My Own Story," considered by many critics as the baseball book of the year (take a deserved bow, Wendell Smith), can be purchased from the Greenberg, Publishing Co., Dept. C, 201 E. 57th St., NYC 22. It is crammed with pictures (I thought too many) but is well written and should be a "must" on the bookshelf of colored and white diamond lovers.
