Teen Age Chatter

DATE-TIME DO'S AND DON'TS

DON'T pile into the car ahead of your girl. Hand her in, then go around to your side. DO let him help you out, girls (right). This makes you the girl he'll ask again.

DON'T forget to agree on what you're going to do. Betty Wilson dressed for the movies, but Richard Holcomb had a picnic in mind. Girls, you could ask, if he forgets to say.

DO say hello to the chaperones.

Ever feel ill at ease and unhappy when you're out on a date—especially with someone you like? Isn't it because you don't quite know how to handle the little situations in boy-girl manners that come up?

Being sure of your date-manners leaves you free to enjoy yourself whole-heartedly, without those little doubts to clutter up your fun. And such knowledge makes you the kind of poised adult who's bound to be a success.

DON'T make your girl a contortionist when you're putting on her coat. "DO hold it below her shoulders," Fletcher Bell says. "DO thank him," adds Joyce Williams.

"DON'T act like this if you want to avoid a goodnight kiss," says Iona Adams to Tanny S.

"DON'T plunge by the hostess and grab a chair, pulling your girl along, when you go into a restaurant," says Junior Starks.

DO take off your hat, and let the hostess show you to your table. Then, seat your date. DO nod a nice "thank you" to the restaurant hostess, girls and boys, both.

DO let the boy remove your coat—usually after you are seated. He will hang it up, or rest it on the chair. Always accept his courtesy quietly and sweetly—that's

Sift the flour, measure, add baking powder, salt and sugar, sift again. Beat egg yolk, add milk and melted shortening, pour into flour mixture and stir just enough to moisten dry ingredients. 3/4 cup shortening
2/3 cup sugar
2 eggs, separated

Sift flour. Measure, then add salt and cinnamon and sift again. Cream shortening, add sugar gradually and beat until light and fluffy. Add egg yolks and milk to shortening-sugar mixture, alternately with sifted flour mixture. Add melted chocolate and nuts. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry, fold them into batter. Bake in a moderately hot waffle iron for about five minutes. Remove, cut in small triangles or squares, sprinkle lightly with confectioners' sugar. Serve plain with coffee or tea, or topped with chocolate ice cream. Four portions.
