Mr. and Mrs. Harry Adams Supervisors, Carver Home.

Lord, bless folk who, somehow, haven't got there. Bless the folk who meant to do something fine, and haven't done it yet; the folk who might have lived more nobly; the folk who are not as good as they ought to be, and know it. All who haven't succeeded in business, who have tried to go straight and failed, who get up meaning to keep their temper, and lose it before breakfast. Lord, bless all those and give them heart to try all over again.

And I am one who has fallen short. Lord, help me to bring a first-rate spirit to a second-rate life.

Teen Age Chatter

By Dorothy Green

Greetings Gates, How's it with you this week of sunshine? And how was the day of vacation for all the Lincoln High Teens?

Seen at the Lincoln High School picnic were Juliet Hammond and Jeanne Ivory.

The Clique Club held its second meeting at the home of the president, Miss Freddie Louise Powell. Officers were elected, which were as follows:

Vice President and Sergeant-at-Arms, Joyce Williams. Secretary, Betty Wilson. Assistant Secretary and Treasurer, Jean Malone. Social Committee, Phyllis Holcomb, chairman; Dorothy Green, Dolores Bowen. Ways and Means Committee; Floratine Crawford, chairman; Robbie Powell, Betty Wilson.

There are ten members in the club. Each girl is very enthusiastic about this newly formed social club.

The girls meet every other week. The next meeting will be June 6, with Jeanne Malone and Dolores Bowen as hostesses. The first big event of the of the Clique Club will be a picnic May 23. Each girl will invite one male guest and prepare his lunch. Miss Powell served a very delicious dish of ice cream, strawberries and cookies.

The Club has one honorary member. She is Miss Ruby Harper, now living in Independence, Mo.

Miss Lois Hatcher was fortunate enough to make a most interesting trip to Kansas City. Good going, kid.

I noticed that Freddie Powell and Albert Bowen took in the Nebraska Theater Sunday afternoon. Great little ole deal I think. Bye now, Dotty.

Baconburgers — Mushroom Gravy

To 1 pound ground hamburger add 2 slices raw bacon, 1 large onion and 1 piece celery put thru the food grinder, or chop them very, very fine. Mix well and season with salt and pepper. Shape into 8 patties. Brown on both sides in 1 tablespoon shortening or salad oil. Remove the patties. Make a pan gravy with the drippings. 1 tablespoon flour, 1 can condensed mushroom soup and 1/2 cup water. Put patties back in gravy and simmer over low heat 10 to 15 minutes. Serve with mashed potatoes and fresh beets and greens.

Cook beets and beet tops separately. Peel the beets and chop. Chop the drained greens and combine the two, seasoning with salt, pepper, 2 tablespoons margarine and 2 teaspoons vinegar.

Scalloped Eggs and Onions

Slice 4 onions. Fry 2 slices of bacon. Remove bacon and crumble it. Fry onions in the fat. Put onions into a greased casserole. Cover with 6 hard cooked eggs, slice. Sprinkle bacon and 1/4 cup grated cheese over the top and pour 1 pint well-seasoned cream sauce over all. Top with buttered cracker crumbs. Bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees F., until bubbly and brown.

Spring Days and House-Cleaning—They come at the same time, don't they? Maybe these hints will help.

To Be Comfortable on house-cleaning days, dress comfortably; have music from the radio; plan for a rest period if you have lots to do; renew your energy or change your pace by stopping to eat an apple, banana, or something light, or to drink a glass of fruit juice; change your shoes to rest your feet; plan so that order is restored in some way by the time the family gets home at night.

Liquid Wax is easier to use on furniture. Finger marks can be rubbed off with a clean cloth and ordinarily the wax needs to be applied only once a year.

A Paper Plate glued to the bottom of the paint can provides a place for the paint brush and keeps paint from dripping onto the floor.

You Should Wash Walls from the bottom up. Water which runs down a wall that already has been cleaned and moistened will not stain, but when it runs down a soiled surface it will leave streaks which are quite hard to remove.

An easy and satisfying lunch on days you've wakened too late for breakfast consists of broiled bacon and fried eggs served in toasted buttered buns.

Keep your dried fruits in the refrigerator so they'll hold their original bright color, flavor and vitamin C. This also keeps them safe from insect damage.
