300,000 Negro True Comics Hit U.S. Newsstands

Responding to a nation-wide demand, the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, and the National Urban League released this week 300,000 copies of NEGRO HEROES, No. 2, picture-color true stories of outstanding Negroes. This issue features life histories of Jackie Robinson, Booker T. Washington, Sadie T. M. Alexander, Toussaint L'Overture, Mabel K. Staupers, Sugar Chile Robinson, and the adventures of the 784th Tank Battalion in World War II; and short sketches of Frederick Douglass, Katy Ferguson, Phyllis Wheatley, Tom Molyneux (early 19th century boxer), and Alexander Pushkin, the Russian poet.

The true stories in the 32-page booklet meet a long-felt need for inspiration material for young America. They will also serve to supplement Negro history texts and to promote interracial understanding. Following the publication of the first NEGRO HEROES in 1947, hundreds of enthusiastic letters were received from teachers, counsellors and parents, commending the venture and urging additional issues.

"We believe," stated Dorothy I. Height, Delta Sigma Theta president, "that boys and girls will be thrilled and inspired as they read of the lives of Negro Americans who have been successful in various fields. We are very glad to co-operate with the National Urban League in presenting NEGRO HEROES, a significant innovation in education and race relations. We hope to place many more issues of NEGRO HEROES within the reach of our youth, for we know they will enjoy reading them. More than that, we hope they will get some ideas that will help them make up their minds to show their teachers, parents and friends that they, too, can be among the heroes in American life."

Plans are already in operation for the third issue, slated for a Fall release. A limited number of NEGRO HEROES are available through

Two Outstanding Americans

Sugar Chile Robinson and Mrs. Mabel K. Staupers smile at each other over a copy of the new NEGRO HEROES, National U. L.-Delta Sigma Theta publication. The four-color picture magazine, 300,000 of which hit the nation's newsstands this week, carries dramatic stories of the young musician and the famous nurse as well as stories of Jackie Robinson, Sadie T. M. Alexander, Booker T. Washington, Toussaint L'Overture, and the adventures of the 784th Tank Battalion in World War II. (A.N.P.)
