Charge Virgin Isles Domestic Enslaved

By James B. LeFource

MIAMI. (ANP). Charges were confirmed here last week that Negro domestics brought into the Miami area from the Virgin Islands are being held in a state of bondage by families whom they are contracted to work for before coming to America. One of the migrant workers was put in jail because she quit her job before she had worked out the transportation advanced her. The domestics are signed up before leaving the islands to work for $40 per month, room and board. At a conference of the Council of Social Agencies held last week, it was openly admitted that some of the workers are living in a condition bordering on peonage. Said one of the members of the committee of transients: "It's the 'Grapes of Wrath' story all over again."

Teen Age Chatter

By Dorothy Green.

Congrats to the graduates from Lincoln High, Whittier and Irving Jr. High Schools.

The Clique Club met Sunday afternoon at the home of Miss Delores Bowen. The girls had a very interesting business meeting at which they made plans to have an invitational formal lawn party the latter part of June. Refreshments were served by the hostesses Misses Jeanne Malone and Delores Bowen.

I would like to know who this fineboy is that Marilyn Bowen has been talking so much about lately. Could anyone tell me or is it a secret?

They tell me that Gladys Bradford has been interested in a certain boy that lives on "T" street. I wonder is it true? If so, who is he? Should I tell them, Gladys?

I wonder what Marion Bradford meant when she said little B. I. T. and old B. A. G.? I'll tell you next week what they mean if you can't guess.

NEW YORK. (ANP). "Nature Boy," the sensational overnight song hit written by a comparatively unknown musician, owed its sudden rise to popularity to Nat "King" Cole and his group, and two employees of Radio Station WNEW here. It all happened last November, when rumors started circulating around the trade that King Cole trio had cut one of the great discs of all time. But what this disc was remained a secret until March 22, when Al Trilling, custodian of the 100,000 record library at WNEW, handed the record to Jerry Marshall to play over the latter's disc show at 2:16 p. m. Four minutes later, according to Marshall, "we were swamped with telephone calls—people wanting to know the name of the haunting melody." Bye now, Dotty.

GARNISHES FOR YOUR MEAT PLATTER.

If you want piquancy as well as color to add that final touch to your meat platter, try serving one of these as a garnish.

Gingered Pineapple Slices.

Drain and dry on a paper towel 6 slices canned pineapple (1 No. 2 can). Saute the slices in hot butter, in skillet, until golden-brown on one side. Turn; sprinkle halves with 1 teasp. ginger, and saute until brown.

Broiled Orange Slices.

Wash 2 oranges. Cut crosswise into 1/2" slices. Stick 5 cloves in rind of each slice. Dip in French dressing, and broil until golden-brown on one side; then turn, and brown on other side.

Cranberry Rounds, New Style.

Cut a 1-lb. can jellied cranberry sauce into 8 slices. Cut each slice of jellied sauce in halves. Spread top with mayonnaise. Sprinkle with minced celery. Or place rounds, spread as above, on drained slices of canned pineapple.

Curried Peach Halves.

Drain and dry on a paper towel 8 canned peach halves (1 No. 2 1/2 can). Cream 3 tablesp. butter or fortified margarine and 1 teasp. curry powder. Place about 1 teasp. curry butter in center of each peach half. Broil until golden-brown around edges.

Sauteed Olives.

Buy large ripe olives. Drain off liquid. Saute olives in butter until well heated. Arrange with parsley around that special weekend roast.

Radish Fans.

Wash radishes. Remove roots and stems. Cut each radish in thin slices, crosswise, almost but not quite through the radish. Place around meat on watercress.

On the Grocer's Shelves.

On the grocer's shelves, you'll find many ready-to-serve garnishes that will give your meat platter a festive air; pickled watermelon rind, spiced Seckel pears and crabapples, brandied peaches, pears, and apricots, etc.

Canned fruit, salad or pudding can be packed in a school lunch in a little screw-top glass jar.

If stainless steel is overheated, brown spots may appear which are impossible to remove.

Think twice before peeling an apple. Most of the food value is in the flesh immediately under the skin, and peeling will throw it away.

It's beauty vs. food value when you store carrots, beets, turnips and parsnips. The tops look nice, but they will draw moisture and food from the roots and wilt the vegetable.

A laundry brush is indispensable for those extra dirty collars and cuffs. It will save your hands, and the fabric as well, from the wear and tear of constant, harsh rubbing.

If apples are stored with cabbage, potatoes or root vegetables, they will tend to pick up odors from these foods.

NADINE COLE paused last week while putting the finishing touches to the unique, newly finished patio and barbecue pit at her beautiful home to briefly relate the history of the Negro spirituals and renew her pledge to discourage their swinging.

Anywhere, U. S. A. Only Seconds Away

Your telephone covers more ground faster than any other means of general communication. A long distance telephone call will take you anywhere in mere seconds—and at surprisingly low rates. Long distance rates are especially low after 6 p.m. and on Sunday. Remember—you are never farther away from anyone than the nearest telephone. Don't let distance separate you from loved ones when long distance telephone service is so convenient—and so inexpensive.
