First Jail Term In KKK Flogging

Editor's note: This article is being reprinted because date was omitted May 27.

ATLANTA, Ga.—R. B. Ellison, who admitted that he flogged two men "in an attempt to do good," was sentenced to three years imprisonment yesterday.

Ellison, identified as a Ku Klux Klansman by other "Black Raider" defendants, pleaded guilty in the flogging of Joe C. Berry and Roy Gravitt.

He asked for leniency "to show the women and children in this state that someone is interested in their welfare." He accused both flogging victims of having failed to support their families.

Judge Bond Almand gave him the maximum sentence allowed. Six other defendants await trial later this week. An eighth committed suicide after connecting the whipping with the KKK.

OES Meets in 27th Annual Grand Chapter Session

By Mattie B. Gooden, P. G. M.
The 27th session of Amaranthus Grand Chapter, O. E. S., State of Nebraska and Jurisdiction, met in Omaha June 15-18 at the Masonic Hall, 26th and Blondo streets. Preceding the sessions, there was a board meeting of Grand trustees and officers on Tuesday afternoon. In the evening, a reception was held at the Masonic Hall which was well attended by delegates to the session and the public.

The Grand Chapter opened the morning of June 16. All subordinate chapters were represented and there were visitors from sister jurisdictions. Under the capable leadership of Grand Worthy Matron Cloma H. Scott and Grand Worthy Patron Floyd Buckner, the organization has shown a substantial increase numerically and financially, with peace and harmony prevailing throughout the Jurisdiction. Most Worshipful Grand Master Clayton P. Lewis, Lincoln, brought greetings from the Grand Lodge of Nebraska. Other high Masons in attendance were Past Grand Masters Walter Seals, E. R. Fletcher, P. H. Jenkins and Past Grand Patrons Dr. D. W. Gooden and Russell E. Reese.
Among the officers elected for the ensuing year are: Mrs. MaYme Houchins, Lincoln, Grand Worthy Matron; Mr. Floyd Buckner, Omaha, Grand Worthy Patron. Grand trustees: Mrs. Maude Johnson, P. G. M., Lincoln, Venus Starms and Pearl Fletcher, Omaha. On the Grand Star: Mrs. Zeola Hammond, Lincoln, Grand Ruth.

Juneteenth Celebration Successful
The 19th of June celebration (emancipation day in Texas), sponsored by the Negro Chamber of Commerce was a grand occasion and a festive spirit reigned among the hundreds that witnessed the day's activities.

Beginning at 10:30 a. m., the parade of beautifully decorated floats, cars and bicycles, started at G. W. Carver high school and after passing through the heart of town, ended at the new park, where a dedication ceremony took place. Other events on the day's program included a concert by the youth band, a baseball game in the afternoon and a softball game at night. Everyone seemed to show a lot of enthusiasm about each event, but especially the band concert. Dinner on the grounds consisted of a free barbecue and home-cooked lunches. The member clubs of the City Federation of Women's Clubs and the federation were represented in the parade. Prizes were awarded as follows:

Grand prize—Cemetery and Charity Club.
Best-decorated float—The Gayle Royal Club.
Best decorated car—C. E. Moore club.
Best decorated bicyc—Billy Hawthorne.
Winning name for the new park—Georgia Lee Frazier.
Oldest living citizen in Ellis county—Mr. Frank Fowler.

Young Socialites Charm Guests

The Clique Club, recently organized girl's social club, proved themselves delightful companions and hostesses last week when they gave one of the nicest social events for the younger set for many a moon. The club, limited to 10 members, names Dorothy Green and Robbie Powell as originators, with Miss Green getting the name credit. Their aim is to encourage better social events for the young set and they certainly seem to know how to go about it. Among their many pleased guests were the chaperones, Mesdames James Dean, J. D. Bowen, Ray Holcomb and Clyde Malone.

Two people in each hundred, in one middle west county, express a religious preference.
